AMERICAN THANKSGIVING IN PORTLAND

November 26 4 days $935 pp double $1225 single

Thanksgiving in the United States is one of the biggest holidays of the year. It is a time of family gatherings and celebrating good fortune. It also heralds the beginning of the Christmas shopping season, and with that comes unbelievable opportunities for deals. Plus there is no GST and no state sales tax in Oregon! We celebrate the holiday at the Embassy Suites Hotel, located in downtown Portland right near the Portland Saturday Market and central to shopping and attractions. It is a lovely historic property with evening cocktail receptions and daily cooked to order breakfast. A traditional Thanksgiving dinner is included at the hotel. Although there are plenty of opportunities to shop, the hotel's location allows us to enjoy a weekend full of holiday celebration: the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade, the annual tree lighting ceremony in Pioneer Square, and the multitude of vendors at the wonderful Saturday Market. We also see the show Ain't Misbehavin' which celebrates the legendary jazz great, Fats Waller. What better way to kick off Christmas.

ETHIOPIA - Sept 23, 2016 for 18 days

Visiting Ethiopia in Autumn 2014 was certainly everything and nothing that I expected it to be. Each day provided new intuition into the magic that the people, culture, history, and traditions offer to the traveller. The country is absolutely foreign but so unique that it is strangely familiar and welcoming. A 'wow' moment or three every day, such as the view from my mountaintop hotel room in Lalibela, a town in Northern Ethiopia, after a day of exploring the incredible monolithic rock-cut churches of the area; or our visit to the Konso tribe in the South where we took part in traditional ceremonies for the children who were coming of age. I loved being here right from the start and I knew that there would be so many others from Canada looking for these kind of unique travel experiences – experiences that are so memorable you can't wait to return to see more.
