Branson, Missouri

Branson had its modest beginning in 1882 when Reuben Branson opened a general store and post office in the area. The first tourist attraction opened in 1894 when William Lynch bought Marble Cave, renamed it Marvel Cave, and began charging for tours. Fame came to Branson in 1907 when Harold Bell Wright published his novel about the Ozarks, The Shepherd of the Hills. Hugo and Mary Herschend acquired Marvel Cave in 1950 then, ten years later, built Silver Dollar City, a re-creation of a frontier town which still operates today with rides and shows. The Baldknobbers Jamboree opened the first live musical show in Branson in 1959, but the first theatre on Highway 76 was Presley's Mountain Music Jubilee in 1967. Branson began its transformation into a major tourist attraction in 1983 when the Roy Clark Celebrity Theatre opened and began to bring famous country music stars to Branson. During the next ten years, performers such as Box Car Willie, Andy Williams, Shoji Tabuchi, and Glen Campbell built their own theatres. The television series 60 Minutes aired an episode in 1991 which declared that Branson was the "music capital of the entire universe", much to Nashville's chagrin. Currently there are 40 theatres operating in Branson and it has more theatre seats than Broadway or Las Vegas. It has been named the #1 U.S. destination for groups for the past six years and entertains more than six million visitors annually, but has a year-round population of only 11,000. Branson's title today is the "live music show capital of the world."

Activity Level: Light activity including short distances to walk and some steps, mainly going to/from your theatre seats. There can be longer walks in Seattle and Kansas City airports; request a cart or wheelchair in advance if this could be an issue for you. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 1, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance.

Itinerary

Tuesday, October 24:

Transportation is provided to Seattle and we stay overnight at the Quality Inn near the airport.

Wednesday, October 25: Meals: B

Our flight on Alaska Airlines leaves Seattle in mid-morning and is non-stop to Kansas City, Missouri, arriving about 4 pm. We stay overnight at the Drury Inn near the airport.

Thursday, October 26: Meals: B,L

We journey south across Missouri with a stop at Fantastic Caverns. Discovered in 1862 by a farmer's dog, the cave is the only one in the USA that you can ride through on a tram. Near Springfield, we have lunch at Lambert's Café, famous for its generous portions (hope you are hungry). Then it is a short drive into the hills of the Ozarks to reach Branson. We stay six nights at the full-service Radisson Hotel, located just off Country Music Blvd. It has 10 floors, interior corridors, restaurant, lounge, indoor/outdoor pool, sauna, whirlpool, and fitness centre. Tonight, enjoy the first of our 13 wonderful shows in Branson — The Texas Tenors at Starlite Theatre. Since first stepping onto the stage of America's Got Talent, these three tenors have been wowing audiences around the world. Their unique blend of country, gospel, classical, and Broadway music keeps them in high demand with this memorable show full of music, humour, and cowboy charm.

Friday, October 27: Meals: B,D

Our morning show is John Denver Tribute, presented by Grammy-award winning musician James Garrett who delivers the songs and music of his late friend John Denver in this inspiring tribute to the country legend. Hear some of your favourite songs such as Annie's Song, Back Home Again, Rocky Mountain High, and Country Road as well as the stories behind the songs. Our matinee show is The Dutton Family. They are international touring and recording artists who play everything from bluegrass to classical in their shows, featuring a variety of instruments: violin, guitar, bass, viola, banjo, mandolin, harmonica, and drums. Dinner is included at the Grand Country Buffet. The evening show is Presley's Country Jubilee, two memorable hours of music and comedy with one of Branson's longest running shows, still popular after 50 years on the stage.

Saturday, October 28: Meals: B,L,D

This morning, a locally-guided tour visits highlights of Branson including College of the Ozarks which has a unique approach to education and is nicknamed "Hard Work U." Then we board Showboat Branson Belle for a lunch cruise on Table Rock Lake, featuring the live band, The Castaways. The world's only aerial violinist, Janice Martin, is also an accomplished singer who plays several instruments. Enjoy the polished vocal stylings of American Idol semi-finalist, Jason Yeager. The show lightens up with comedian and ventriloquist, Phil Hughes, and takes a magical turn with Aaron Radatz, a masterful illusionist. Afterwards, we explore the Titanic Exhibit which contains hundreds of artifacts from the famous ship as well as experiences such as a slanted deck and a vat of water as cold as the ocean. Dinner is at Florentina's, then we go to the Americana Theatre to see George Dyer. With his amazing tenor voice, Dyer soared onto the operatic scene in 1996, making his professional debut to rave reviews with the New York City Opera. He has enchanted countless audiences in the United States and Europe with solo concerts that feature a delightful mix of opera and Broadway favourites. It is this variety of musical performances that he has brought to Branson and 2017 will be his 9th season.

Sunday, October 29: Meals: Brunch, D

A sumptuous brunch is included in elegant Keeter Hall at College of the Ozarks, served by students. The matinee show is #1 Hits of the Sixties. Enjoy a high energy party as this group of 10 revisits the days of the British Invasion, Motown, California Surfin' and the Age of Aquarius with over 100 songs, 100 costume changes, and even some classic Fifties tunes! Dinner is at Landry's Seafood House, then the evening show is Puttin' on the Ritz which brings the magnificent glamour of yesteryear to the Branson stage! Enjoy the dazzling costumes, sensational synchronized dance steps, and catchy tunes of the 20s and 30s from the greatest composers of the cinema and theatre, Irvin Berlin, Cole Porter, and George Gershwin. It's a glittering production of song and dance that brings to mind the days of Fred Astaire, Gene Kelly, and Judy Garland!

Monday, October 30: Meals: B,D

Breakfast is at Grand Country Buffet. Our morning show, Down Home Country at 76 Music Hall features singer Bob Davidson and "Fiddle Player of the Year" Melody Hart. They present the classics of George Jones, Hank Williams, Merle Haggard, and Waylon Jennings, in addition to the comedy of Harley Worthit. Classic country, western swing, and gospel music are all expertly performed in one show. This afternoon, we see Pierce Arrow, the male quartet that celebrates all kinds of country music. They are joined by two female singers for gospel favourites with influences like Patsy Cline, Reba McEntire, Martina McBride and Nicole Mullen. Dinner is at Buckingham's with music by Kenny Parrott. Tonight's show is Irish Tenors & Celtic Ladies at King's Castle Theatre. The nine singers bring some of Ireland's best music to Branson, including opera, pop, swing, Irish classics, and traditional folk ballads. Their repertoire includes a variety of songs such as Scarborough Fair, Nessun Dorma, You Raise Me Up, Rolling in the Deep, and the Irish favourite, Danny Boy.

Tuesday, October 31: Meals: B,L,D

The morning is free time and lunch is at Grand Country Buffet. Daniel O'Donnell is the star this afternoon and one of the week's entertainment highlights. His annual show in Branson and his touring shows around the world always play to sold-out audiences. O'Donnell's early attempts at recognition were failures until he put his savings into recording My Donegal Shore as a single. His incredible rise to the top began modestly when he signed with Ritz Records in 1986 and released his second album, I Need You. By 2002, he had achieved 19 singles and 17 albums. He is the only performer ever to have had six records on the British charts at the same time. We stay at the Welk Theatre for dinner and our evening show, Million Dollar Quartet, is also there. It is an electrifying Broadway musical inspired by the true story about an extraordinary twist of fate in 1956 that brought rock 'n' roll icons Elvis Presley, Jerry Lee Lewis, Johnny Cash, and Carl Perkins together in what became one of the most memorable nights in music history. Hit songs include everything from Blue Suede Shoes and Walk the Line to Ghost Riders, Sixteen Tons, Great Balls of Fire, Folsom Prison Blues, Fever, Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On, and Hound Dog.

Wednesday, November 1: Meals: B,L

We must bid farewell to Branson and the Ozarks after six days of fabulous entertainment. The coach takes us to Kansas City and we fly about 5 pm on Alaska Airlines non-stop to Seattle. We stay overnight at the Quality Inn in Renton.

Thursday, November 2: Meals: B

Transportation is provided to Victoria.
