Fall in Love with New Orleans and Louisiana

The state of Louisiana is divided into five distinct regions, and you experience three on this vacation. New Orleans is one of the great cities in the western world, not a place you simply visit, but one you fall in love with. The cultural riches, sensual indulgences, and unparalleled service that define the New Orleans experience still flourishes. History comes to life in Plantation Country. Wind along the Great River Road as you travel back to the 1800s to the days of sprawling antebellum plantations, glimpsing the lives of both master and slave. Cajun Country, along the peaceful bayous, is where the first French Canadians settled and forever changed the landscape and culture of the state. Resourceful, stoic and inventive, these were the people who turned soup into gumbo and washboards into musical instruments.

Itinerary

Monday, October 22:

Transportation is provided to Seattle and we stay overnight at the Quality Inn near the airport.

Tuesday, October 23:

Meals: B

Our Alaska Airlines flight to New Orleans is non-stop and arrives in early evening. Welcome to Louisiana! Our coach meets us at the airport. We stay three nights at the Wyndham Hotel, located in the French Quarter on Royal Street and a block off Canal Street. It has a restaurant, free wi-fi, indoor pool, and fitness centre.

Wednesday, October 24:

Meals: B,D

This morning, a local guide takes us on a walking tour of the French Quarter where we hear the fascinating 300-year history of characters who built this city. Some highlights are the Cabildo Museum, the Spanish Quarter, St. Louis Cathedral in Jackson Square (where the original Louisiana Purchase is housed), Louis Armstrong Park, and Bourbon Street. After this walk, everyone gets a voucher to enjoy, at your leisure, a New Orleans tradition of coffee and beignets at Café Du Monde. There is free time for lunch at the Historic French Market. Then we board the coach for a driving tour of the city: the Lower Ninth Ward where most of the damage occurred during Hurricane Katrina; St. Louis Cemetery, an above-ground cemetery known for its voodoo history; Audubon Park; Tulane and Loyola Universities; elegant St. Charles Avenue, lined with gracious mansions and trees; and the central business district beside the Mississippi River. Our Welcome Dinner is at Court of Two Sisters, the largest courtyard in the French Quarter and a New Orleans institution. The two sisters, Emma and Bertha Camors, born in 1858 and 1860, belonged to a proud and aristocratic Creole family. Their "rabais" or notions outfitted many of the city's elite women with formal gowns, lace, and perfumes imported from Paris. After an elegant dinner, we cross Bourbon Street to the Maison Bourbon Dixieland Club for an after dinner drink and jazz show.

Thursday, October 25:

Meals: B,L

Mardi Gras World is the famous float-making studio where 90% of the floats used in New Orleans' Mardi Gras parades are made. We tour the many carnival dens and observe artists and sculptors as they create the world's largest fleet of floats. Try on elaborate costumes, view an exciting Mardi Gras video presentation, and visit their gift shop. At 11 am, we board the Natchez Riverboat, one of the few sternwheeler vessels left on the Missisissippi River. There is a jazz band on board, calliope music, and a buffet lunch. During the two-hour cruise around the Crescent Bend of the Mississippi, we pass downtown highrises, the Domino Sugar Refinery, and the site of the Battle of New Orleans during the War of 1812. The afternoon is free time to stroll the streets of the French Quarter.

Friday, October 26:

Meals: B,L

Today is devoted to learning about life in rural Louisiana, from the perspectives of both the entitled and the workers. Step back in time as we enter Plantation Country which borders the Mississippi River and features splendid plantation homes and sugar cane fields at every turn. Our first stop is Laura Plantation, once owned by one of the early Creole settlers. The house was built in 1805 and is surrounded by sugar canes and 12 Historic Register buildings. The slave cabins are where West African folktales of Br'er Rabbit were first recorded. Oak Alley Plantation, the Grand Dame of the River Road, is next. A 400 metre long canopy of giant live oak trees, believed to be 300 years old, forms an impressive avenue leading to the classic Greek-revival style antebellum home. Lunch is included on the grounds, followed by the house tour. Nearby Thibodaux is in the Bayou Lafourche area and we stay at the Carmel Inn.

Saturday, October 27:

Meals: B

We take a pontoon boat trip through a cypress swamp. Floating among trees draped with Spanish Moss, we watch for fat alligators, turtles, egrets, and many other native bird and animal species. Next we tour the Donner-Peltier Distillery, the area's first handcraft distillery producing vodka, rum, and whiskey from Louisiana products. A tasting and cocktail are included. Our drive continues to Lafayette where we stay three nights at Comfort Suites.

Sunday, October 28:

Meals: B,D

A local guide joins us for the next two days while we tour Cajun Country. The Acadians or Cajuns settled in Louisiana after their deportation from Nova Scotia and retain a unique dialect of the French language and other traits that make them a distinct ethnic group. Here they joined exiled French aristocrats fleeing the French Revolution and their Louisiana born, called Creoles. The meeting of these cultures was made famous by the Longfellow poem Evangeline, and we visit the Longfellow-Evangeline Center in St. Martinville. Other local highlights are Martin's Accordions, noted for their Cajun squeeze boxes; the beautiful stained-glass windows of St. John's Cathedral, and the 500-year old Evangeline Mighty Oak. Tonight, we go to Randol's Cajun Restaurant and Dance Hall to eat delicious Cajun food, hear live Cajun music, and dance to lively tunes.

Monday, October 29: Meals: B,L

Today's focus is on the New Iberia area. We visit the Tabasco Factory which makes the famous hot sauce. When Ned McIlhenny took over his father's Tabasco company in 1898, he was an Arctic explorer, naturalist and conservationist, and he set aside a bird sanctuary on Avery Island to protect the endangered snowy egret. He created Jungle Gardens in 1935 and today we can marvel at a vast collection of 400 varieties of camellias, 100 varieties of azaleas, 50 kinds of juniper, and over 1,000 varieties of iris. Next, we visit the Konriko Rice Mill, now a century old and oldest in the USA. At Vermilionville, we go back in time to an Acadian village of living history with seven restored buildings dating to 1765. Nearby is the Jean Lafitte National Historic Park which tells the story of the expulsion of the Acadians and their arrival in the bayous of southern Louisiana.

Tuesday, October 30: Meals: B

We head east via I-10 on the 30-km long bridge across the Atchafalaya Swamp. In Baton Rouge, a local guide meets us for a driving tour that includes the soaring state capitol and tales of crooked Louisiana politicians. We visit the Rural Life Museum which has 24 buildings displaying folk architecture, tools, furniture, and farming equipment of the diverse cultures that settled and farmed pre-industrial Louisiana. From there, it is a little over an hour's drive to New Orleans Airport. Our Alaska flight leaves this evening and is non-stop to Seattle. We stay overnight at the Quality Inn in Renton.

Wednesday, October 31: Meals: B
Transportation is provided back to your pickup point in Victoria.

Activity Level: Moderate activity including walking tours of the French Quarter and walking to attractions on uneven pavement on October 24 and 25, maximum 6 blocks or less than 1 km. Coaches are not allowed in the French Quarter except for arrival and departure days with luggage, so there is a one block walk to/from the coach. Touring the historic mansions usually requires some stairs and standing. There can be longer walks in Seattle and New Orleans airports; please request a cart or wheelchair in advance if this could be an issue for you. There are many stops during this tour and you must be able to get on and off the coach by yourself without delaying your fellow travellers. The coach cannot carry a scooter. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 2, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance.

e-points: This tour earns 81 e-points. Each time you travel on a Wells Gray tour, you earn Experience Points, or e-points. One e-point equals $1. Redeem your points on select tours or accumulate enough points to earn a free tour! Redemptions offered until August 15.
