About Mystery Tours

This is Wells Gray Tours' 56th Mystery Tour since 1985. The first Mystery Tour was only three days and travelled to Whistler. In the 33 years since then, Mystery Tours have generally been offered twice a year and have taken curious customers to destinations all over Canada, the USA, and even Iceland and Costa Rica. Some fly and explore that area, such as southern Florida in 2011 or North Carolina in 2012. Some stay close to home such as a 2017 tour to Mount Rainier, Olympic Peninsula, and North Cascades Highway. Another 2017 tour cruised for four days on the St. Lawrence River aboard the small ship Canadian Empress.

The 2015 tour flew to Saskatchewan where they toured the RCMP Academy, explored the Tunnels of Moose Jaw, floated in Manitou Hot Springs, watched dancers at Danceland and Wanuskewin Heritage Park, and sampled tasty courses on a progressive walking dinner in Saskatoon. The 2016 Mystery tour travelled to Moncton, New Brunswick. During the next nine days, the group dined on fresh lobster at the Bay of Fundy, walked on the ocean floor at Hopewell Rocks, experienced Acadian culture at Le Pays de Sagouine, stayed in the historic Hotel Tadoussac overlooking the St. Lawrence River, cruised in the Saguenay Fjord, and stayed at the renowned Château Frontenac in Québec City.

That is the intrigue of Mystery Tours! We never tell you where you will go or what you will see. You may be amazed when the coach pulls up beside a cruise ship, or you board a plane for an overseas flight, or you arrive at a unique hotel. Each day of the tour has surprises, as the mystery route is revealed only as we travel along from day to day. However, we can promise you that our route or destination has interesting sights and unusual experiences — often the first time that Wells Gray has been there or stayed at a particular hotel. Some mysteries are offered in subsequent years as a regular tour.

Wells Gray Tours has been a pioneer in offering Mystery Tours in British Columbia. Among the 800 or so tour operators in North America, only a handful offer multi-day mystery itineraries like ours. Please join us for Mystery Tour #56! Only one Mystery Tour will be offered in 2018. Some exciting surprises are waiting for you.

Tour Notes

NOTES ABOUT YOUR MYSTERY TOUR (being careful not to reveal anything about the destination)

- A passport is required for this tour.
- You will be flying somewhere.
- Wells Gray Tours has never previously offered this itinerary.
- You will be travelling by four different modes of transport, plus airplane and motorcoach.
- A letter about suggested attire plus packing and travelling tips will be distributed at final payment.

 Activity: Light activity including distances to walk of up to ½ km (if you want to see everything). Also expect steps and some uneven walkways underfoot. There are many stops during this tour and you must be able to get on and off the coach by yourself without delaying your fellow travellers. The coach and four other modes of transport cannot carry a scooter. If you think you may have difficulty participating in Activity Level 1, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require ongoing assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense. Travel insurance will probably not cover you.

SPECIFIC MYSTERY TOUR CLUES

Here are some clues to the mystery route. These clues are arranged in the order that they occur on the itinerary. Find a map and have fun guessing where we're going!

1. A Liberal Prime Minister and a Methodist Bishop are very busy in the 21st century, even though they died more than 40 years ago.
2. A luggage carrier visits the mother of Jesus on a river between two lakes.
3. A century ago, seven men converged on a spirit's colourful domain to record its natural wonders.
4. A big island and an Indian island frame photogenic cliffs that soar from an outstanding lake.
5. An insurance executive read The Great Gatsby and enshrined his own name on a mobile investment.
6. A splendid white and green parrot perches on a 130-year old veranda and surveys its domain where seven Presidents have stayed.
7. An inventor's products are still in a million Canadian homes, a century after he changed the world. His vast collection of things is so renowned that it does not have "Museum" in its name.
