Tour Notes

- The Victoria Star 2 is 30 metres long and carries about 100 passengers comfortably. It has two decks with lots of indoor seating, plus outside decks at the bow and stern for better viewing. The vessel is owned and operated by San Juan Cruises which has run excursions among the islands for many years.
- The itinerary consists of two cruises, one for 2 hours and one for 4½ hours. We will be sharing the vessel with people who are not in our tour group.

Activity Level: Moderate activity including short distances to walk and some steps, such as boat docks, the Victoria Star 2, and to the two museums in Friday Harbor. At low tide, ramps to the docks can be steep. The coach and vessel cannot carry a scooter. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 2, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director, driver and boat crew have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require ongoing assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense. Travel insurance will probably not cover you.

Itinerary

Sunday, September 16:

Meals: L

We travel the Coquihalla Highway and cross the border at Sumas. We stay overnight in Bellingham at the Oxford Suites.

Monday, September 17:

Meals: B

We board the Victoria Star 2 in Bellingham and depart at 9:30 am. The San Juan Islands are an archipelago of 172 islands. Explored in 1791 by the Spanish expedition of Francisco de Eliza, these islands are rich with history, and the captain and crew tell entertaining tales of discovery, smuggling and war. After clearing Bellingham Bay, we cruise west for two hours, weaving among the San Juan Islands, and dock at Friday Harbor. It got its name from Joseph Poalie Friday, a native Hawaiian man who worked at the Hudson Bay Company's farm from 1841 to 1859. Your luggage is transferred from the vessel to our hotel. There is free time for lunch at one of the numerous restaurants near the marina. This afternoon, choose between two Friday Harbor museums. The Whale Museum opened in 1979 and was the first in the country to be dedicated to a species living in the wild. The Museum of Art is committed to promoting the arts of the Pacific Northwest and Southwest British Columbia, and champions the creativity of the amazing variety of artists in this region. (If you prefer to visit neither museum and have free time, your fare is reduced by $10.) We stay two nights at Friday Harbor Suites.

Tuesday, September 18:

Meals: B,D

A driving tour of San Juan Island includes stops at Lime Kiln State Park, Whale Watch Park, Alpaca Ranch, a lavender farm, English Camp in San Juan Island National Historic Park, and Westcott Bay Sculpture Park. Hear the delightful story of the Pig War which started in 1859 on San Juan Island between British and American settlers and lasted 12 years — the only shot fired was the one that killed the pig. A stop is made in Roche Harbor which was established in 1886 as the company town of the Roche Harbor Lime Works. The classic Hotel de Haro is still open today and is listed on the National Historic Register. There is leisure time in Friday Harbor later this afternoon.

Wednesday, September 19:

Meals: B,L

The morning is free time to enjoy the vibrant seaside town of Friday Harbor, filled with interesting shops and artist galleries. Walk to the dock (about 10 to 15 minutes along Spring Street) or the hotel's free shuttle can give you a ride. Lunch of local wild salmon is served on board Victoria Star 2 at 1 pm. While cruising, we search for wildlife including Orca, Humpback and Minke whales, bald eagles, harbour seals, harbour porpoises, and sea birds. Then we continue on the final leg of our voyage, taking us through narrow channels and past scenic islands, and we dock in Bellingham about 5:30 pm. We stay overnight again at the Oxford Suites.

Thursday, September 20:

Meals: B,L

There are shopping opportunities at Trader Joe's in Bellingham and the Duty-Free Store at Sumas, then we head for home along the Coquihalla.
