Blooms and Bounty

The Skagit Valley explodes in an abundance of colour when the tulips blossom. Although Mother Nature ultimately decides the dates, the middle of the month tends to be good timing for this showy display. Whether early or late, there are usually dainty yellow daffodils first, followed by a rainbow of tulips, then the irises and lilies after that. We visit the Tulip Festival on a weekday to avoid the crowds that come here on weekends from Seattle. This tour spends a morning in La Conner, a delightful waterfront town of heritage buildings and interesting shopping. A cruise from La Conner through narrow Deception Pass and the Swinomish Channel is a highlight of the second day. The local Kiwanis Club organizes a salmon bake dinner each evening during the Tulip Festival, and we join this event on the third evening. This tour stays at the luxurious Tulalip Resort and Casino, located about 30 minutes drive from the focal area of the Tulip Festival. Come and enjoy the blossoms and colours of the Skagit Valley.

Itinerary

Monday, April 8:

Meals: L,D

There are convenient pickup points around Greater Victoria. We travel on the Coho ferry to Port Angeles and the ferry across Puget Sound to Edmonds, then there is a short drive to Tulalip Resort and Casino where we stay three nights. It is a luxurious native-owned hotel with eight restaurants or lounges, heated indoor swimming pool, hot tub, fitness centre, sauna, and spa treatments. A $20 casino voucher is provided for your enjoyment in the casino. Tulalip's fabulous buffet is included this evening.

Tuesday, April 9:

Meals: B,L

We board the MV Chinook for a 2½-hour cruise under La Conner's Rainbow Bridge, along narrow Swinomish Channel, and through Saratoga Passage to Deception Pass. Deception Pass Bridge connects Fidalgo Island with Whidbey Island using two spans totalling 500 metres long, and the Chinook sails through the turbulent tidal waters underneath. The bridge rises 55 metres above the water and was completed in 1935. A tasty cracked crab feast is included on the boat. The rest of the afternoon is free time and you may want to shop at Seattle Premium Outlets, adjacent to the hotel, where there are over 130 stores.

Wednesday, April 10:

Meals: B,D

We drive to the quaint village of La Conner where there is time to stroll the waterfront streets and browse the shops. During the rest of the day, we participate in some events of the annual Skagit Valley Tulip Festival when millions of tulips bloom. A local guide takes us through this floral extravaganza, taking advantage of a midweek day when the roads and gardens are far less crowded. Stops include the show gardens at Tulip Town and Roosengaarde. Late this afternoon, we enjoy the Kiwanis Club's annual Salmon Bake at the Hillcrest Lodge.

Thursday, April 11:

Meals: B

We go to Bellis Fair Mall in Bellingham for lunch and shopping time. We stop at the Duty Free store, cross the border at Blaine, then ride an afternoon ferry back to Vancouver Island.

Tour Policies

Payments: A deposit of $150 per person is requested at the time of booking and the balance is due February 20, 2019. By paying the deposit, you agree to the Terms & Conditions, Activity Level and Cancellation Policy outlined.
