Sun Peaks is one of BC's best four-season resorts, with summer welcoming outdoor adventurers and holiday-seekers alike. ## Itinerary

Monday, July 15

Meals: L

We drive through the Thompson Valley to Cache Creek and have lunch at historic Ashcroft Manor. It was built in 1862 as a stopping place for Gold Rush travellers and ranks as one of the oldest surviving buildings in the province. This visit nicely sets the scene for the Gold Rush stories through the next two days. During the afternoon drive north along the Cariboo Highway, we visit the scenic Painted Chasm and pass through 100 Mile House and Williams Lake. We stay two nights at the Billy Barker Hotel in downtown Quesnel.

Tuesday, July 16:

Meals: B

We are treated to the knowledge of an expert historian during the drive from Quesnel to Barkerville. Governor James Douglas, sometimes called "Father of British Columbia", was a key figure in Barkerville's early years and our guide's name is also James Douglas! After arrival in Barkerville, join the guided walking tour. For the rest of the visit, there is lots to see and enjoy at your own pace — listen to a discussion of Cariboo justice with Judge Begbie at Richfield Courthouse; buy something tasty at Goldfield Bakery; view a historic slide show at the Museum; attend church at St. Saviour's; and walk through many historic buildings, staffed with costumed interpreters who bring the 1880s vividly to life. A show at the Theatre Royal is included, as well as a stagecoach ride around Barkerville, and gold panning where you keep what you find. During the return drive to Quesnel, we visit Cottonwood House, built in 1864 as a stopping place on the wagon road.

Wednesday, July 17:

Meals: B,L

Near 100 Mile House, we follow Highway #24 through Lone Butte and past dozens of attractive lakes. We join the Yellowhead Highway at Little Fort and head to Sun Peaks Resort. Since 1994, a modest ski area called Tod Mountain has been transformed into fabulous Sun Peaks, complete with a mountainside village of hotels, shops and restaurants. Although best known for its world-class skiing, Sun Peaks is a wonderful place to visit in the summer. We stay two nights at the Sun Peaks Grand Hotel, located in the centre of the village with lots of restaurants and shops nearby. It is a full-service hotel with dining room, lounge, indoor and outdoor whirlpools, and fitness centre.

Thursday, July 18:

Meals: B

Today is yours to enjoy as you like. Included is a scenic ride on the Sunburst Chair, a quad lift with protective bubble, which whisks you nearly 1,000 metres up the mountain to the alpine meadows and Sunburst Lodge. In mid-July, the alpine flower bloom is beginning (most years) and you can spend a few hours strolling the alpine meadows and admiring colourful wildflowers. Enjoy the panoramic view encompassing 100 km around. For the rest of the day, you may wish to play a round of golf, walk the many trails, soak in the whirlpools, or take a horseback ride.

Friday, July 19:

Meals: B

The morning is leisure time and there is a late check-out. We leave Sun Peaks after lunch and head home to Kamloops and the Okanagan.
