The magic of train travel

Each year, Wells Gray Tours offers one or two tours with a theme of train travel and all of them are immensely popular. Some customers are retired railroaders, some want to enjoy sights that cannot be seen from highways, and some want to relive the nostalgia of steam locomotives. All are fascinated by the different experiences offered by the huge variety of trains and rail routes. Each year, Wells Gray offers a Canadian coast to coast journey by train. A 2013 tour featured six unique rail excursions in Montana, Colorado, and Utah. A 2017 tour travelled on the Trans-Siberian Railway from Moscow to Beijing. Five of the seven trains on this 2019 tour are pulled by steam locomotives, and all promise awesome scenery travelling through spectacular mountains and canyons, and alongside rushing rivers.

Itinerary

Tuesday, September 17:

A transfer is provided to Victoria Airport, and we fly to Denver. Welcome to Colorado! A local coach meets us at Denver Airport and we drive downtown for a two-night stay at the Hampton Inn.

Wednesday, September 18: Meals: B,L

First we go to the Colorado Railroad Museum in Golden which explains the state's flamboyant rail history. Our first train excursion is the Georgetown Loop, a narrow-gauge railroad with a steam locomotive. Completed in 1884, the trains hauled silver ore from Silver Plume Mine down to Denver until 1938. A section was rebuilt in 1973 and it is considered an engineering marvel with a descent of 200 metres in 7½ km and grades over 4%. An exciting stop is on the Devil's Gate Bridge, 60 metres above the creek.

Thursday, September 19: Meals: B,D

We drive south to Colorado Springs, dominated by one of the highest mountains in the USA, Pikes Peak at 4,300 metres. (The famous Pikes Peak Cog Railway is closed for at least 2 years for major repairs.) Cripple Creek was the site of the last great Colorado gold rush in 1890. During the next 20 years, about $500 million of gold was recovered. In 1961, much of Cripple Creek was declared a National Historic Site. In 1991, gambling was legalized, so casinos now occupy historic buildings. Our second train journey is the Cripple Creek & Victor Narrow Gauge Railroad, a 45-minute ride pulled by a steam locomotive past ghost towns and gold mines. Back in Colorado Springs, we tour the US Air Force Academy where about 4,300 officer cadets are in training at any time. This is followed by a drive among the spectacular red rock formations of the Garden of the Gods. We stay overnight at the Embassy Suites. Enjoy two hours of complimentary drinks at 5:30 pm.

Friday, September 20:Meals: B,L,D

At Canon City, we board train #3, the Royal Gorge Route Railroad and journey upstream close beside the rushing Arkansas River. The train squeezes through the awesome Royal Gorge, in places only 20 metres wide and 380 metres deep. High above is the Royal Gorge Suspension Bridge, until recently the world's highest bridge. After the train returns to Canon City, we drive up to the Royal Gorge Park. Take a walk across this awesome bridge with incredible views, then return via a thrilling aerial gondola ride. The next two nights are at the Hampton Inn in Alamosa.

Saturday, September 21:Meals: B,L

Train #4 is the Rio Grande Scenic Railroad. We board in Alamosa for a 3½-hour trip pulled by a steam locomotive to La Veta. The Great Sand Dunes can be seen to the north while crossing the broad San Luis Valley. The route winds through the soaring Sangre de Cristo Mountains and climbs to the highest standard-gauge rail pass in the USA at 2,800 metres. La Veta is a charming art town where you may wish to browse galleries and shops. We return to Alamosa on our coach with a stop at historic Fort Garland. The fort was established in 1858 to protect settlers in the San Luis Valley, and was abandoned in 1883.

Sunday, September 22:Meals: B,L

One of the most incredible steam train journeys in North America is the Cumbres & Toltec Railroad. It is the longest and highest narrow gauge rail trip in the USA. The steam locomotive pulls out of Antonito at 10 am for the six-hour journey through the majestic Rocky Mountains to Chama, New Mexico. It climbs steadily through many loops and several tunnels, hops the New Mexico & Colorado border 11 times, pierces awesome Toltec Gorge, crosses several lofty trestles, and attains its highest point at 3,000-metre high Cumbres Pass. A hearty lunch is included at the remote station of Osier. Our coach drives around to meet us at Chama. We stay two nights at the Hampton Inn in Durango.

Monday, September 23:Meals: B,L

Today is devoted to Mesa Verde National Park, the location of America's best-preserved cliff dwellings which date from the 13th century. The Anasazi Indians inhabited Mesa Verde between 600 and 1300 AD. They were mainly subsistence farmers, growing crops such as corn on nearby mesas. Mesa Verde became a national park in 1906 and a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978. With the benefit of a local guide, we drive to several viewpoints of the cliff houses such as the famous Cliff Palace with 200 rooms. Lunch is included at Far View Lodge in the park.

Tuesday, September 24:Meals: B,D

Train #6 is another amazing experience aboard the steam-powered narrow-gauge Durango & Silverton Railroad. It was named North America's #1 train excursion in 2010 by National Geographic. This all-day excursion follows the Animas River Canyon through the rugged San Juan Mountains to the mining town of Silverton, climbing 1,000 metres in 75 km. Built to haul gold and silver ore and passengers in 1882, the train has been in continuous service for 131 years. The locomotives are in original condition, built around 1925, and are still coal-fired, and the coaches have been lovingly restored. We ride one-way to Silverton, about 3½ hours, then board our coach to continue north to Grand Junction. We stay overnight at the Grand Vista Hotel.

Wednesday, September 25:Meals: B,L

This morning, we admire the red rocks of Colorado National Monument from several vista points. In the afternoon, there is a short drive along the Colorado River and we stay overnight at Glenwood Hot Springs Resort. The large hot pool is kept at 34°C year round and is the world's largest hot mineral springs pool. The smaller "Therapy Pool" averages 40°C and has a higher mineral content.

Thursday, September 26:Meals: B,D

Our seven train excursions culminate in one last memorable trip — Amtrak's California Zephyr. We board at noon at Glenwood Springs and enjoy a 6½ hour daylight journey through Colorado's Rocky Mountains with some of the USA's most impressive railway vistas. The train closely follows the rushing Colorado River and one engineering marvel is Glenwood Canyon where railway, freeway and river all share this extraordinary gap. Another highlight is the trip through roadless Gore Canyon and Byers Canyon with the Colorado River roaring through rapids below the track. The train crosses under the Continental Divide in the 10-km long Moffat Tunnel, completed in 1928 at a cost of $16 million. Then we descend the east slope of the Rocky Mountains to return to Denver. Our last two nights are at the Grand Hyatt Hotel in downtown Denver.

Friday, September 27:Meals: B,D

A sightseeing tour of Denver with a local guide includes the State Capitol and U.S. Mint. This afternoon, we visit the Denver Art Museum and the History Colorado Center. A farewell dinner is arranged tonight when you can reminisce about your experiences riding the rails around Colorado.

Saturday, September 28:Meals: B

We fly from Denver to Victoria, and a transfer is provided to your pickup point.
