Cirque du Soleil

Cirque du Soleil was founded in 1984 in Gaspé as part of the celebrations around the 450th anniversary of Jacques Cartier's arrival in Quebec. Cirque was based on a totally new concept: a striking, dramatic mix of the circus arts and street entertainment, featuring wild, outrageous costumes, staged under magical lighting and set to original music. With not a single animal in the ring, Cirque's difference was clear from the start. After performing in Montreal, Sherbrooke and Quebec City, the show then performed in Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara Falls during 1985. With its fame growing across Canada (including a performance at Expo '86), Cirque offered its first show in California in 1987 and became an overnight success. The Mirage Resort in Las Vegas signed Cirque to a year-long contract in 1992. Meanwhile touring groups performed in Europe and Japan, also to unprecedented acclaim. In 1998, new permanent shows were inaugurated at Walt Disney World in Florida and Bellagio Resort in Las Vegas. Today, Cirque du Soleil has about 4,000 employees with headquarters still in Montreal, and 19 shows with different themes are currently performing around the world. Over 90 million people have seen a Cirque show since 1984.

Cirque du Soleil sometimes sends a touring show to B.C. Interior cities. These are much smaller productions than Luzia and cannot be compared to those staged in the Grand Chapiteau.

LUZIA

Cirque du Soleil's Luzia takes you to an imaginary Mexico, like in a waking dream, where light ("luz" in Spanish) quenches the spirit and rain ("llovía") soothes the soul. With a surrealistic series of grand visual surprises and breathtaking acrobatic performances, Luzia cleverly brings to the stage multiple places, faces and sounds of Mexico taken from both tradition and modernity. Luzia is performed in the Grand Chapiteau, a specially-designed white and yellow Big Top. It represents the solar system and reflects the importance of space and especially the moon in the Mexican culture which inspired the show.

Luzia premiered in Montreal in 2016 and has toured the USA and Mexico since then. This is the show's first visit to Vancouver.

Show seating in the Grand Chapiteau: Seats are in Section 200, Rows O and P. This is the best category with excellent viewing of the stage and the stunning aerial acts.

WAITRESS

Waitress tells the story of Jenna Hunterson, a waitress in an abusive relationship with her husband Earl. Looking for ways out, she sees a pie contest and its grand prize as her chance. The original production of Waitress premiered in Cambridge, Massachusetts in 2015 and had its Broadway debut in 2016. Waitress was nominated for 19 awards including four Tony Awards, and it won Drama Desk and Outer Critics Circle Awards. A U.S. national tour began in October 2017. Waitress opened in London's West End in February 2019, and it is scheduled to open in Sydney, Australia, in 2020.
