Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Holiday Inn

Day 4: Monday, October 26

We drive north along the coastal plain, nicknamed the "Bread Basket of Mexico" because of the fertile farmlands growing corn, wheat, sorghum, beans, oats, chile peppers, tomatoes, and many other crops. We cross the Tropic of Cancer and pass through cities such as Culiacan and Guasave. We visit the Las Labradas archeological site where ancient drawings or petroglyphs have been chiseled on volcanic rocks. They date to about 4,000 years ago, and this is the only petro-glyph site in a beachside location in the Americas. On arrival in Los Mochis, we stay two nights at the downtown Best Western Plus Hotel.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus Hotel

Day 5: Tuesday, October 27

Los Mochis is located on the west coast of mainland Mexico, a few miles inland from the Sea of Cortez. Sugar beets are one of the important crops here. This morning, we take a cruise on Topolobampo Bay, the largest and deepest natural harbour on this coast. The bay is home to many dolphins and they invariably leap and play close to the boat. This is followed by a sightseeing drive around Los Mochis.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus Hotel

Day 6: Wednesday, October 28

The morning is free time to enjoy shopping and bargain-hunting in the nearby bazaars. At 1 pm, we board the Chihuahua Al Pacifico Railroad, riding on the new first-class El Chepe Express train. Thrill to the engineering wonders of this amazing railroad during our 8-hour journey high into the Sierra Madre. Planning and construction of the railroad took 90 years and it opened to traffic between Los Mochis and Chihuahua in 1961. After crossing the coastal plain, the train begins to climb steadily along the canyon of the Rio Fuerte. Once into the Sierra Madre, it corkscrews higher and higher, hugging steep mountainsides and squeezing through narrow gorges. At the Temoris switchbacks, three levels of track are visible at the same time. In all, there are 86 tunnels ranging up to a kilometre long and 39 bridges of which the highest is 100 metres. Divisadero station is perched right on the rim of Copper Canyon (Barranca del Cobre) and we leave the train on arrival about 9 pm. We stay two nights at the Hotel Divisadero Barrancas which literally perches on the edge of the cliffs.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Divisadero Barrancas

Day 7: Thursday, October 29

When you open your curtains this morning, you will be stunned by the awesome view of Copper Canyon. The sheer cliffs drop over 2,000 metres to the river. Five times larger than the Grand Canyon and 1½ times deeper, Copper Canyon slices into the Sierra Madre to form a vast wilderness that has never been penetrated by roads. The native people in this rugged canyon are the shy and primitive Tarahumara Indians who inhabit caves along the canyon walls. Today, we experience Copper Canyon in several ways. We ride the remarkable Teleferico Aerial Tram nearly 1,000 metres down from the rim. Built in 2010, the cablecar is up to 200 metres above the ground and the 4.3 kilometre trip from upper to lower stations is one of the longest in the world with no supporting towers. Back at the top, thrill to the hanging bridge and the glass-bottom floor. If you are under age 65, buy an exciting ride on the zip lines (one is over 2 km long). A visit is planned to a Tarahumara school where the children perform dances and races (subject to change). You may want to browse the bargains in the Tarahumara craft shops. We hope to arrange a visit with a Tarahumara family, but this is often a last-minute opportunity.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Divisadero Barrancas

Day 8: Friday, October 30

The morning is leisure time. We leave Divisadero by motorcoach and drive through the Oteros Canyon to the lumber town of Creel (pronounced cree-EL). We stay two nights at the Best Western Plus The Lodge in Creel.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus

Day 9: Saturday, October 31

During a tour around the Creel area, we view a Tarahumara cave dwelling, visit the Jesuit Mission of San Ignacio and the Boarding School, and admire nature's handiwork on the weird balancing rocks of Mushroom Valley. The Mission Store stocks English language books about the Tarahumaras and Copper Canyon. An optional walk to 30-metre high Cusarare Falls is offered as well.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus

Day 10: Sunday, November 1

We board the El Chepe Express train in Creel for the return journey down the western slope of the Sierra Madre. The trip takes 7½ hours with views of the canyons and foothills in the opposite direction. We disembark at El Fuerte and stay two nights at Hotel Torres, an enchanting centuries old building with a tree-filled courtyard

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Torres

Day 11: Monday, November 2

El Fuerte was founded by the Spaniards in 1564 and is full of historic buildings. A walking tour includes the picturesque square bounded by the cathedral and a 200-year old hacienda, now the city hall. We also visit a Mayo village to learn about this regional indigenous culture and daily living. The afternoon is leisure time.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Torres

Day 12: Tuesday, November 3

We drive to Mazatlan along the coastal freeway and stay overnight again at the oceanfront Holiday Inn. A farewell dinner is a chance to reminisce with fellow travellers about our memorable experiences in Copper Canyon.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Oceanfront Holiday Inn

Day 13: Wednesday, November 4

The morning is at leisure and we leave the resort about noon for the Mazatlan airport. We fly on WestJet non-stop to Calgary, arriving about 8 pm. We stay overnight at the Marriott

Hotel inside the airport terminal. Meals included: Breakfast
Accommodation: Marriott Hotel

Day 14: Thursday, November 5

We continue on WestJet to Victoria. A transfer is provided to your pickup point.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

In the last ten years, you have probably seen stories in the media about the dangers of travelling in Mexico. The Mexican government has made heroic efforts to counteract this bad press and salvage their vital tourism industry by showing that Mexico is as safe to travel in as many foreign countries. Tourism has rebounded, but many people still pay attention to what they see on TV and in newspapers. Mexico still has some dangerous places to visit, but so do many countries including Canada and the USA. This tour was redesigned in 2014 from previous Copper Canyon tours to avoid Chihuahua and Juarez, and the 2020 itinerary stays west of the Sierra Madre where travel is much safer. A change made in 2019 was to fly in and out of Mazatlan, giving time to add Los Mochis and Topolobampo Bay to the itinerary, and that will be kept in 2020. The scenery in Copper Canyon and Urique Canyon is awesome, and the train ride is among the world's most spectacular. Major attractions such as the aerial tram down into Copper Canyon, the hanging bridge, and glass floor are thrilling experiences. Come and enjoy this amazing region!

TOUR NOTES

Tour Director and Guide: A Wells Gray tour director is with you throughout the tour. A bilingual Mexican guide accompanies you on all the days in Mexico. The Mexican guide provides commentary about scenery and culture, and assists with translation at the various stops.

Accommodation: The Holiday Inn Mazatlan and the Calgary Marriott are the only first-class hotels on this tour. Other hotels are rated as 3 or 3+ stars and are generally the best available. Many are in unique or historic buildings. Don't expect fancy hotels in the Copper Canyon region as this is still a remote tourist area. Hotels named in the itinerary could change, but substitute accommodation will be of similar quality.

Documentation: A passport is required for this tour. A tourist card is also required for Canadian citizens visiting Mexico. It is issued on arrival and must be kept throughout your visit and surrendered when you leave Mexico at Mazatlan Airport. Don't lose this card as there is a fine to replace it. The Mexico tourism tax is normally included in your airline ticket.

Important Tour Information will be available at final payment and contains suggestions about clothing, weather, food and drink, tipping, extra money needed, and Mexican exchange.

TOUR This is a Tour 25 departure, meaning the tour is limited to 25 participants, a more intimate travel experience

 Activity Level 2: Moderate activity including short distances to walk. Expect many stairs, uneven walkways, sidewalks, and trails. Cobblestone streets are common in historic towns. A few hotels have no elevator and there are stairs to access your room. Walking tours are arranged in some historic towns where coach transportation is impossible. Seeing everything mentioned in this itinerary requires active participation. There can be longer walks in the airports while travelling to and from Mazatlan; request a cart or wheelchair in advance or at check-in if this could be an issue for you. The coaches cannot carry a scooter. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 2, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director, Mexican guide, and drivers have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense; travel insurance will probably not cover you.
