Day 4: Tuesday, March 30

Istanbul's strategic position along the historic Silk Road, rail networks to Europe and the Middle East, and the only sea route between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean helped create Istanbul's diverse population. Straddling the busy waterway of the Bosporus Strait, Istanbul bridges Europe and Asia, making it the only city in the world situated on two continents. Byzantium, Constantinople, Istanbul - its three names span more than 2,600 years, nearly 1,600 of them as the capital of two of the greatest empires the world has known, Byzantine and Ottoman. The morning is leisure time to relax after the long flight. This afternoon, we cruise the Bosphorus Strait taking in sights on both the European and Asian shores including mosques, fortresses, and palaces. The Bosphorus is 31 km long and 3 km wide, connecting the Black Sea and the Sea of Marmara.

Day 5: Wednesday, March 31

During a full-day tour, we visit landmarks of Istanbul such as the Topkapi Palace including the treasury section, St. Sophia, The Blue Mosque, and the Hippodrome. There is free time in the Grand Bazaar to browse some of its 3,500 shops.

Day 6: Thursday, April 1

First, we visit the famous covered spice market which has operated since 1660. The heady aromas of saffron, cloves, sugar, and spice fill the air under the market's vaulted ceiling. Baskets filled with every spice imaginable add colours of gold, orange, yellow, and green, and the array of dried fruits and nuts is astounding. Afterwards, there is free time to stroll Taksim Square, the heart of modern Istanbul. A unique experience is included today — a Turkish bath. This evening, enjoy a Turkish floor show including a three-course dinner with wine or beer and cultural folklore entertainment with belly dancing.

Leaving Istanbul, we drive west along the Sea of Marmara and ride a ferry across The Dardanelles to Canakkale. Nearby is the ancient city of Troy which is best known as the setting of the Trojan War, about 1200 BC. As described in Homer's Odyssey, after a 10-year siege, Troy fell to the ruse of the Trojan Horse. Excavations starting in the 1860s pinpointed the location of Troy and proved that a succession of cities had occupied this site. Today, we can stroll the city walls and streets. Tonight's accommodation is the five-star Parion Hotel in Canakkale.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Parion Hotel

Day 8: Saturday, April 3

We continue down the west coast to Pergamon which dates to 280 BC. Perched atop a windswept mountain, Pergamon is listed in the Bible as one of the Seven Churches of Asia. Pergamon flourished until the 14th century and once rivaled the more famous cities of Alexandria, Ephesus and Antioch in culture, commerce and medicine. Under Ottoman rule, it was abandoned and, today, some of the ruins of this once magnificent city lie underneath the modern city of Bergama. We stay overnight Hotel to be advised.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: TBA

Day 9: Sunday, April 4

We drive inland to Pamukkale, a unique natural phenomenon where hot mineralized water flows from springs to create pools and terraces that are visually stunning. The early Turks attributed healing powers to the hot springs as the waters seemed to cure many ailments. The temperature in the 17 natural thermal pools ranges from 35 to 100 degrees C. We stay overnight at the fabulous Colossae Hotel and Spa which utilizes the hot springs water for its own pools.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Colossae Hotel

Day 10: Monday, April 5

During the return to the coast, we stop to explore the ruins of Ephesus. Founded about 6000 BC by the Ionian Greeks, it became the most important commercial centre of Asia Minor. It was abandoned 600 years ago and excavations started in 1863. Our walking tour includes Domitian Square, Hercules Gate, Fountain of Trajan, The Baths of Scholastica, Temple of Hadrian, Library of Celsus and, the most magnificent structure in Ephesus, Grand Theatre. In the Terrace Houses section, the oldest building dates to the 1st century BC. Here we see fine mosaics and frescoes, and the remarkable heating system using clay pipes. We stay overnight in Kusadasi at Derici Hotel.

Day 11: Tuesday, April 6

This morning, we visit a carpet factory with an opportunity to buy a genuine, magnificent Turkish rug, and are also treated to a fashion show. In Kusadasi, we board the Celestial Olympia and sail at 1 pm. The Aegean Sea has about 1,415 islands, mostly belonging to Greece. At 6 pm, we arrive at the first island port, Patmos. The island covers only 33 square km and has a population of 3,000. It is home to the sacred Cavern of the Apocalypse where John was inspired to write the Book of Revelations. Sometimes called the "Jerusalem of the Aegean", Patmos is an official pilgrimage site for members of the Catholic faith. Visits to the Cave of Revelations and to St. John's Monastery are worthwhile. Being an island, Patmos has a very active small port and watching the fishermen unload their catch of vividly coloured sea urchins, small silvery fish and globular orange sea creatures is quite fascinating.

Day 12: Wednesday, April 7

A shore excursion is included to visit the Acropolis of Lindos, a natural citadel first built in the 4th century BC and fortified successively by the Greeks, Romans, Byzantines, Knights of St John, and Ottomans. We also see the Castle of the Knights of St John, the Staircase of the Propylaea, and Columns of the Hellenistic Stoa. Back in the port of Rhodes, you can stroll the streets of the Medieval Town and tour the Palace of the Grand Master.

Day 13: Thursday, April 8

From 7 am to noon, the ship stops at Heraklion, the capital of Crete, largest of the Greek Islands. It is well-known in legend for being the birthplace of Zeus. We take a tour to the Minoan Palace of Knossos, first settled about 7000 BC with buildings dating to about 2000 BC. Knossos is sometimes called "Europe's oldest city". It was abandoned around the 9th century AD when the population shifted to the coast and the buried ruins were discovered by archeologists in 1878. The excavations now indicate that the palace covered six acres and had 1,300 rooms. In the afternoon, we sail north to the beautiful volcanic island of Santorini. The ship arrives at 4:30 pm and departs at 9:30 pm. Optional shore excursions can take you to the spectacular caldera with whitewashed houses perched on the edge, or the famous sunset in Oia.

Shore excursions are included on Rhodes and Crete, and they can be purchased in advance or on the ship for Patmos and Santorini.
