BRANSON, MISSOURI

Branson had its modest beginning in 1882 when Reuben Branson opened a general store and post office in the area. The first tourist attraction opened in 1894 when William Lynch bought Marble Cave, renamed it Marvel Cave, and began charging for tours. Fame came to Branson in 1907 when Harold Bell Wright published his novel about the Ozarks, The Shepherd of the Hills. Hugo and Mary Herschend acquired Marvel Cave in 1950 then, ten years later, built Silver Dollar City, a re-creation of a frontier town which still operates today with rides and shows. The Baldknobbers

Jamboree opened the first live musical show in Branson in 1959, but the first theatre on Highway 76 was Presley's Mountain Music Jubilee in 1967. Branson began its transformation into a major tourist attraction in 1983 when the Roy Clark Celebrity Theatre opened and began to bring famous country music stars to Branson. During the next ten years, performers such as Box Car Willie, Andy Williams, Shoji Tabuchi, and Glen Campbell built their own theatres. The television series 60 Minutes aired an episode in 1991 which declared that Branson was the "music capital of the entire universe", much to Nashville's chagrin. Currently there are 40 theatres operating in Branson and it has more theatre seats than Broadway or Las Vegas. It was named the #1 U.S. destination for groups for six years and entertains more than six million visitors annually, but has a year-round population of only 11,000. Branson's title today is the "Live Music Show Capital of the World."

HOW ARE THE BRANSON SHOWS SELECTED?

The 2021 tour will be the 24th time that Wells Gray Tours has visited Branson. Many customers repeat the tour, knowing that some shows will be offered again, some are new, and many change their songs and stories. After each tour, our travellers turn in their comment sheets, rating each of the shows as excellent, good, average, or poor. A weighting of 10, 5, 1 or 0 respectively is applied. Most of Branson was closed in 2020, due to Covid-19, so we looked at the 2019 ratings. Nine of those shows scored very high and are being offered again in 2021. Two are not performing (Daniel O'Donnell and George Dyer) and two did not score well, so four new shows are being offered: Hughes Family, Larry Gatlin, #1 Hits of the 60s, and Johnson Strings. In addition, the Sight and Sound Theatre changes its production every year, and the spectacular show, Jesus, is scheduled for 2021. With up to 40 shows to choose from, there is always something new and exciting to see in Branson.
