Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Oceanfront

Day 4: Monday, October 25

We drive north along the coastal plain, nicknamed the "Bread Basket of Mexico" because of the fertile farmlands growing corn, wheat, sorghum, beans, oats, chile peppers, tomatoes, and many other crops. We cross the Tropic of Cancer and pass through cities such as Culiacan and Guasave. We visit the Las Labradas archeological site where ancient drawings or petroglyphs have been chiseled on volcanic rocks. They date to about 4,000 years ago, and this is the only petroglyph site in a beachside location in the Americas. We stay two nights in Los Mochis.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus Hotel

Day 5: Tuesday, October 26

Los Mochis is located on the west coast of mainland Mexico, a few miles inland from the Sea of Cortez. Sugar beets are one of the important crops here. This morning, we take a cruise on Topolobampo Bay, the largest and deepest natural harbour on this coast. The bay is home to many dolphins and they invariably leap and play close to the boat. Sea lions and many kinds of birds can also be spotted. Later there is a sightseeing drive around Los Mochis and free time to enjoy shopping and bargain-hunting in the nearby bazaars.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus Hotel

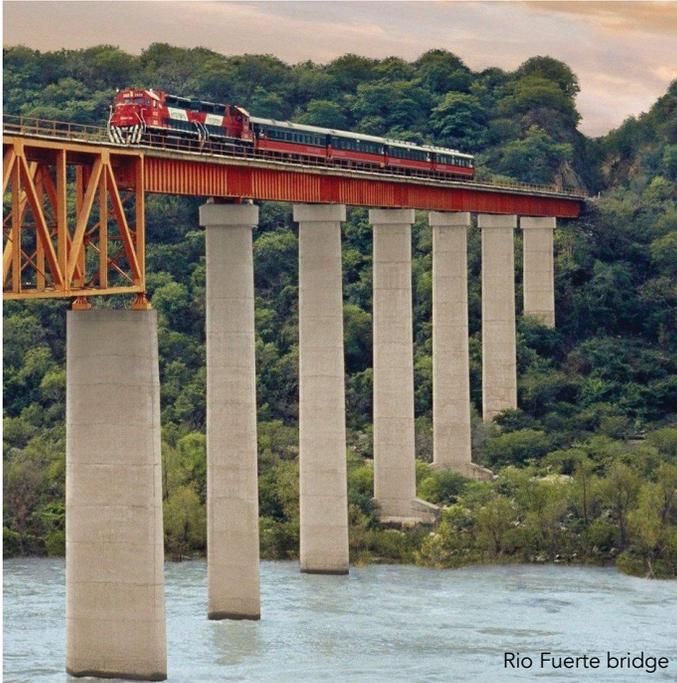

Day 6: Wednesday, October 27

We board the Chihuahua Al Pacifico Railroad, riding on the new first-class El Chepe Express train. Thrill to the engineering wonders of this amazing railroad during our eight-hour journey high into the Sierra Madre. Planning and construction of the railroad took 90 years and it opened to traffic between Los Mochis and Chihuahua in 1961. After crossing the coastal plain, the train begins to climb steadily along the canyon of the Rio Fuerte. Once into the Sierra Madre, it corkscrews higher and higher, hugging steep mountainsides and squeezing through narrow gorges. At the Temoris switchbacks, three levels of track are visible at the same time. In all, there are 86 tunnels ranging up to a kilometre long and 39 bridges of which the highest is 100 metres. Divisadero station is at the rim of Copper Canyon (Barranca del Cobre)

and we leave the train on arrival about 4 pm. We stay two nights at the Hotel Divisadero Barrancas which literally perches on the edge of the cliffs. Thrill to the stunning views during a stroll along the precipice where the rock walls drop over 2,000 metres from the hotel to the river.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Divisadero Barrancas

Rio Fuerte bridge

Day 7: Thursday, October 28

Five times larger than the Grand Canyon and 1½ times deeper, Copper Canyon slices into the Sierra Madre to form a vast wilderness that has never been penetrated by roads. The native people in this rugged canyon are the shy and primitive Tarahumara Indians who inhabit caves along the canyon walls. Today, we experience Copper Canyon in several ways. We ride the remarkable Teleferico Aerial Tram nearly 1,000 metres down from the rim. Built in 2010, the cablecar is up to 200 metres above the ground and the 4.3 km trip from upper to lower stations is one of the longest in the world with no supporting towers. Back at the top, thrill to the hanging bridge and the glass-bottom floor. If you are under age 65, you can buy an exciting ride on the zip lines (one is over 2 km long). An afternoon visit is planned to a Tarahumara school where the children perform dances and races (subject to change). You may want to browse the bargains in the Tarahumara craft shops. We hope to arrange a visit with a Tarahumara family, but this is often a last-minute opportunity.

Aerial tram

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Divisadero Barrancas

Day 8: Friday, October 29

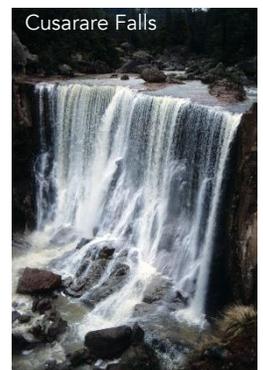

The morning is leisure time. We leave Divisadero by motorcoach after lunch and drive through the Oteros Canyon to the town of Creel (pronounced cree-EL). It was founded in 1907 as a logging town, and for many years it was the final stop westbound on the railway from Chihuahua. It is inhabited mostly by indigenous people of the Rámuri ethnic group, and the use of their native language is widespread. Today, Creel is a gateway to Copper Canyon and tourism is most important for the economy. We stay two nights here.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus The Lodge

Day 9: Saturday, October 30

We visit the Jesuit Mission of San Ignacio and the Boarding School, view a Tarahumara cave dwelling, and admire nature's handiwork on the weird balancing rocks of Mushroom Valley. The Mission Store stocks English language books about the

Cusarare Falls

Tarahumaras and Copper Canyon. An optional walk to 30-metre high Cusarare Falls is offered as well.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Plus The Lodge

Day 10: Sunday, October 31

We board the El Chepe Express train in Creel for the return journey down the western slope of the Sierra Madre. The trip takes 7½ hours with views of the canyons and foothills in the opposite direction. We disembark at El Fuerte and stay two nights at Hotel Torres, an enchanting centuries old building with a tree-filled courtyard.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Torres

Day 11: Monday, November 1

El Fuerte was founded by the Spaniards in 1564 and is full of historic buildings. A walking tour includes the picturesque square bounded by the cathedral and a 200-year old hacienda, now the city hall. We also visit a Mayo village to learn about this regional indigenous culture and daily living. The afternoon is leisure time.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel Torres

Day 12: Tuesday, November 2

We drive to Mazatlan along the coastal freeway and stay overnight again at the oceanfront Holiday Inn. A farewell dinner is a chance to reminisce with fellow travellers about our memorable experiences in Copper Canyon.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Oceanfront

Day 13: Wednesday, November 3

The flight schedule homeward will be available later. We expect to stay overnight at a connecting airport hotel.

Meals included: Breakfast

Accommodation: To be advised

Day 14: Thursday, November 4

We continue home with a flight to Vancouver.

TRAVELLING IN MEXICO

In the last ten years, you have probably seen stories in the media about the dangers of travelling in Mexico. The Mexican government has made heroic efforts to counteract this bad press and salvage their vital tourism industry by showing that Mexico is as safe to travel in as many foreign countries. Tourism has rebounded, but many people still pay attention to what they see in the media. Mexico still has some dangerous places to visit, but so do many countries including Canada and the USA. This tour was redesigned in 2014 from previous Copper Canyon tours to avoid Chihuahua and Juarez, and the 2021 itinerary stays west of the Sierra Madre where travel is much safer. A change made in 2019 was to fly in and out of Mazatlan, giving time to add Los Mochis and Topolobampo Bay to the itinerary, and that continues in 2021. The El Chepe Express train was introduced in 2019, serving primarily tourists instead of locals. After two years experimenting with train schedules, the company set up the 2021 times to allow all daylight travel in both directions. The scenery in Copper Canyon and Urique Canyon is awesome, and the train ride is among the world's most spectacular. Major attractions such as the aerial tram down into Copper Canyon, the hanging bridge, and glass floor are thrilling experiences. Come and enjoy this amazing region!

TOUR NOTES

Currency & Expenses: Two currencies are used on this tour, the US dollar and Mexican peso. In cities and towns, the US dollar is used extensively in hotels, shops, and restaurants. Visa and Mastercard are accepted most places, but ATMs are common and you will need a 4-digit PIN. Markets generally accept either currency. Purchases from the Tarahumaras are typically in pesos. As of December 2020, the exchange rate is approximately $1 CDN = 15 pesos. Gratuities have been included for all meals, and for the Mexican guide, local guides, and drivers.

Changes: Pricing with the Mexican ground operator is in US dollars. As this tour has been planned and priced 10 months before departure, it is possible that exchange fluctuations could affect the fare, in which case you will be notified of the increase or decrease. The flight to Mazatlan is confirmed with WestJet, but the return flight is not available yet, and cost is estimated. This could result in a fare adjustment.

Tour Director and Guide: A Wells Gray tour director is with you throughout the tour. A bilingual Mexican guide accompanies you on all the days in Mexico. The Mexican guide provides commentary about scenery and culture, and assists with translation at the various stops.

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Mazatlan and Calgary Marriott are the only first-class hotels on this tour. Other hotels are rated as 3 or 3+ stars and are generally the best available. Many are in unique or historic buildings. Don't expect fancy hotels in the Copper Canyon region as this is still a remote tourist area. Hotels named in the itinerary could change, but substitute accommodation will be of similar quality.

Documentation: A passport is required for this tour and must be valid until you return to Canada. A tourist card is also required for Canadian citizens visiting Mexico. It is issued on arrival and must be kept throughout your visit and surrendered when you leave Mexico at Mazatlan Airport. Don't lose this card as there is a fine to replace it. The Mexico tourism tax is normally included in your airline ticket.

Flight upgrades: Please enquire about current prices for upgrades on the flights to and from Mazatlan. Premium economy and business class may be available.

Activity Level 2: Moderate activity including short distances to walk. Expect many stairs and uneven walkways, sidewalks, and trails. Cobblestone streets are common in historic towns. A few hotels have no elevator and there are stairs to access your room. Walking tours are arranged in some historic towns where coach transportation is impossible. Seeing everything mentioned in this itinerary requires active participation. There can be longer walks in the airports; request a cart or wheelchair in advance or at check-in if this could be an issue for you. The coaches and trains cannot carry a scooter. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 2, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director, Mexican guide, and drivers have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense; travel insurance will probably not cover you.

This is a Tour 25 departure, meaning the tour is limited to 25 participants, a more intimate travel experience.
