

Oak Alley Plantation

NEW ORLEANS & CAJUN COUNTRY

October 18, 2021 – 10 Days

Fall in Love with New Orleans & Louisiana

The state of Louisiana is divided into five distinct regions, and you experience three on this vacation. New Orleans is one of the great cities in the western world, not a place you simply visit, but one you fall in love with during three nights staying in the vibrant French Quarter. The cultural riches, sensual indulgences, and unparalleled service that define the New Orleans experience still flourishes. History comes to life in Plantation Country as you travel back to the 1800s and the days of sprawling antebellum plantations. Visit Laura and Oak Alley, two of the most famous plantation mansions. During two days exploring Cajun Country, experience the peaceful bayous where the first French Canadians settled and forever changed the landscape and culture of the state.

Day 2: Tuesday, October 19

We fly with Alaska Airlines to New Orleans, arriving in late afternoon. Welcome to Louisiana! Our coach meets us at the airport. We stay three nights at the Wyndham Hotel, located in the French Quarter on Royal Street and a block off Canal Street. It has a restaurant, free wi-fi, indoor pool, and fitness centre.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 3: Wednesday, October 20

This morning, a local guide takes us on a walking tour of the French Quarter where we hear the fascinating 300-year history of characters who built this city. Some highlights are the Spanish Quarter, St. Louis Cathedral in Jackson Square (where the original Louisiana Purchase is housed), Louis Armstrong Park, and Bourbon Street. After this walk, everyone gets a voucher to enjoy, at your leisure, a New Orleans tradition of coffee and beignets at Café Du Monde. There is free time for lunch at the Historic French Market. Then we board the coach for a driving tour of the city: Audubon Park; St. Louis Cemetery, an above-ground cemetery known for its voodoo history; elegant St. Charles Avenue, lined with gracious mansions and trees; Tulane and Loyola Universities; and the central business district beside the Mississippi River. An elegant dinner is planned at the Court of Two Sisters, a New Orleans institution with the largest courtyard in the French Quarter. The two sisters, Emma and Bertha Camors, born in 1858 and 1860, belonged to a proud and aristocratic Creole family. Their "rabais" or notions outfitted many of the city's elite women with formal gowns, lace, and perfumes imported from Paris.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Wyndham Hotel

Day 4: Thursday, October 21

At 11 am, we board the Natchez Riverboat, one of the few sternwheeler vessels left on the Mississippi River. There is a jazz band on board, calliope music, and a buffet lunch. During the two-hour cruise around the Crescent Bend of the Mississippi, we pass downtown highrises, the Domino Sugar Refinery, and the site of the Battle of New Orleans during the War of 1812. The mighty Mississippi rises in northern Minnesota and flows generally south for 3,730 km to the Gulf of Mexico. With its many tributaries, the Mississippi's watershed drains all or parts of 32 states and two provinces, and is the second longest river in North America. Next, we visit Mardi Gras World, the famous float-making studio where 90% of the floats used in New Orleans' Mardi Gras parades are built. We tour the many carnival dens and observe artists and sculptors as they create the world's largest fleet of floats, and you can try on elaborate costumes. Tonight, enjoy a unique experience at the New Orleans School of Cooking. We learn how to prepare the taste of Louisiana, Cajun and Creole, and recipes are provided. Our host entertains us with history, tall tales, and trivia. The general store has lots of products made in Louisiana.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Wyndham Hotel

Day 5: Friday October 22

Today is devoted to learning about life in rural Louisiana, from the perspectives of both the wealthy and the workers. Step back in time as we enter Plantation Country which borders the Mississippi River and features splendid plantation homes and sugar cane fields at every turn. Our first stop is Laura Plantation, once owned by one of the early Creole settlers. The house was built in 1805 and is surrounded by 12 Historic Register buildings. West African folktales of Br'er Rabbit were first recorded in the slave cabins. Oak Alley Plantation, the Grand Dame of the River Road, is next. A 400-metre-long canopy of giant live oak trees, believed to be 300 years old, forms an impressive avenue leading to the classic Greek-revival style antebellum home. Lunch is included on the grounds, followed by the house tour. We stay in Thibodaux in the Bayou Lafourche area.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Hampton Inn

Day 6: Saturday, October 23

We take a pontoon boat trip through a cypress swamp. Floating among trees draped with Spanish Moss, we watch for fat alligators, turtles, egrets, and many other native bird and animal species. We continue to Lafayette for a three-night stay.

Meals included: Breakfast

Accommodation: Comfort Suites

Day 7: Sunday, October 24

A local guide joins us for the next two days while we tour Cajun Country. The Acadians or Cajuns settled in Louisiana after their deportation from Nova Scotia and retain a unique dialect of the French language. Here they joined exiled French aristocrats fleeing the French Revolution and their Louisiana born, called Creoles. The meeting of these cultures was made famous by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem Evangeline, and we visit the Longfellow-Evangeline Historic Site in St. Martinville. Other local highlights are Rip Van Winkle Gardens, the beautiful stained-glass windows of St. John's Cathedral, and 500-year old Evangeline Mighty Oak. At Vermilionville, we explore an Acadian village of living history with seven restored buildings dating to 1765. This evening, we go to Randol's Cajun Restaurant and Dance Hall to eat delicious Cajun food, hear live Cajun music, and dance to lively tunes.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Comfort Suites

Day 8: Monday, October 25

Today's focus is on the New Iberia area. We visit the Tabasco Factory which makes the famous hot sauce. When Ned McIlhenny took over his father's Tabasco company in 1898, he was an Arctic explorer, naturalist, and conservationist, and he set aside a bird sanctuary on Avery Island to protect the endangered snowy egret. He created Jungle Gardens in 1935 and today we can marvel at a vast collection of 400 varieties of camellias, 100 types of azaleas, 50 kinds of juniper, and 1,000 varieties of iris. Later, we visit the Konriko Rice Mill, now a century old and the oldest rice mill in the USA, and Martin's Accordions, noted for their Cajun squeeze boxes.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 9: Tuesday, October 26

We head east via I-10 on the 30-km long bridge across the Atchafalaya Swamp. In Baton Rouge, a local guide meets us for a driving tour that includes the soaring state Capitol, the original Capitol, and tales of crooked Louisiana politicians. We visit the Rural Life Museum which has 24 buildings displaying folk architecture, tools, furniture, and farming equipment of the diverse cultures that settled and farmed pre-industrial Louisiana. It is a little over an hour's drive to New Orleans Airport, then we fly in late afternoon to Seattle.

Meals included: Breakfast

Accommodation: Embassy Suites Sea-Tac

Day 10: Wednesday October 27

Transportation is provided from Seattle to your pickup point in Greater Vancouver.

Meals included: Breakfast

TOUR NOTES

Activity Level 2: Moderate activity including walking tours of the French Quarter and walking to attractions on uneven pavement on October 20 and 21, maximum 6 blocks or less than 1 km.

Coaches are not allowed in the French Quarter except for arrival and departure days with luggage, so there is a one block walk to/from the coach. Touring the historic mansions usually requires some stairs and standing. There can be longer walks in Seattle and New Orleans airports; please request a cart or wheelchair in advance or at airline check-in if this could be an issue for you. There are many stops during this tour and you must be able to get on and off the coach by yourself without delaying your fellow travellers. The coaches cannot carry a scooter. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 2, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense; travel insurance will probably not cover you.
