ITINERARY

Day 1: Wednesday, November 3

We meet the other Wells Gray travellers at Vancouver Airport, then fly to Whitehorse on Air Canada, arriving about 4 pm. We stay four nights in downtown Whitehorse. A "Welcome to the Yukon" dinner is planned. At 10 pm, we drive out of Whitehorse to the Northern Lights Viewing Facility and settle in for a hopefully awesome spectacle.

Meals included: Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Gold Rush Inn

Day 2: Thursday, November 4

A local guide meets us for a drive around Whitehorse including the historic train depot of the White Pass & Yukon Railway, the log skyscraper, log church, sternwheeler SS Klondike, fish ladder, and Schwatka Lake. Next, we go to the Yukon Museum of Transportation which brings vividly to life tales of bush pilots, captains on the Yukon River paddlewheelers, Klondike stampedeers on the Chilkoot Trail, and Alaska Highway builders. Later, we explore the MacBride Museum which has a large collection of relics and photographs from the gold-rush days, including the log cabin belonging to Sam McGee about whom Robert Service, "Bard of the Yukon", wrote a famous ballad. Another Northern Lights viewing is planned tonight.

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 3: Friday, November 5

We learn about the native animals at the Yukon Wildlife Preserve, a unique 350-acre viewing facility featuring 12 major species of northern mammals such as Moose, Muskox, Mountain Goat, Wood Bison, Woodland Caribou, Elk, Lynx, Dall's sheep, and Stone's sheep, presented in their natural environments. Later, we relax in the soothing waters of Takhini Hot Springs with temperatures of up to 42°C. Takhini has been operating for 50 years, but closed in fall 2020 and a beautiful new facility with three pools will open in spring 2021. Tonight is our third night of Northern Lights viewing.

Meals included: Breakfast

Accommodation: Best Western Gold Rush Inn

Day 4: Saturday, November 6

This morning, we visit Lumel Studios for a fascinating glass-blowing demonstration. Admire the intricate art with colourful designs and perhaps buy a keepsake in the shop. In the afternoon, there is an option for a dog sled excursion (see description below). Tonight is our last opportunity for Northern Lights viewing.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Gold Rush Inn

Day 5: Sunday, November 7

We visit the amazing Beringia Centre which tells the story of native people and animals that lived in a prehistoric land between Alaska and Siberia known as the Bering Land Bridge. Our flight to Vancouver leaves in late afternoon, arriving about 7 pm.

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS or AURORA BOREALIS

The Northern Lights, otherwise known as the Aurora Borealis, are magical, mystical, and mesmerising. The scientific explanation lies with the sun and the output of energy particles from sun spots. These energy particles, which take the form of free electrons and protons, leave the sun as plasma and create solar wind. When this wind reaches the earth's atmosphere, the contact with atmospheric gases causes the particles to become excited, and this gained energy is emitted in the form of light. The magnetic poles cause the particles to become unstable and concentrated, thereby becoming visible on earth as dancing lights.

Folklore has always surrounded the aurora phenomenon. In Scandinavia, the lights were called 'herring flash', caused by the reflections cast by large swarms of herring onto the sky. Norse legend refers to "the fires that surround the North and South edges of the world", and this has been put forward as evidence that the Norse ventured as far as Antarctica. In Inuit folklore, Northern Lights were the spirits of the dead demonstrating that they don't feel pain anymore, appropriately named Pathway to Heaven. Many prospectors during the Klondike Gold Rush believed that the Northern Lights were the reflection of the mother lode of all gold. Since we are heading to the Yukon, maybe this is the folklore we will adopt as our own!

Whatever the explanation, the sight of the Northern Lights fills one with awe and childlike wonder, like we are witnessing a magical event as curtains of ever-changing light dance across the sky. The best time of year to view the northern lights is in mid-winter when the nights are longest and darkest. Although it is not possible to predict auroral activity very far in advance, chances of viewing increase dramatically when you go out four nights in a row, as on this tour. The most active region of the auroral oval typically becomes visible around local midnight, and the Yukon is also the widest part of the oval in the north-south direction. Our evenings of viewing begin at 10 pm and last 3-4 hours to catch the darkest hours of the night. However, please be aware that the Northern Lights are unpredictable. We have increased odds in every way possible, but there is no guarantee that we will actually witness a spectacular show.

Northern Lights Viewing Facility — Local tour operator Northern Tales is our host during our time in Whitehorse. Northern Lights viewing activities take place outside the city in a heated, cozy cabin. The facility is located near some trees for shelter from the wind, yet the northern exposure is over an open field for perfect viewing conditions. An outhouse is adjacent. A local guide is with us each evening who shares his/her Yukon experiences and knowledge. Hot drinks and snacks are provided.

TOUR NOTES

Flexible Itinerary: Much of this itinerary is dependent on the weather for the most enjoyment of activities. Therefore, treat this tour as an adventure in travel and allow maximum flexibility for changing conditions. If an activity is cancelled one day due to inclement weather, we will try to reschedule during our stay. We plan to be at the Northern Lights Viewing Facility all four evenings, starting at 10 pm, but cloudy skies could interfere with one or more of these viewings. There is no guarantee that the Northern Lights will be active any night or every night. You can opt out of any of the planned viewings.

Clothing: Dress warmly, no matter what weather forecast you see for Whitehorse. You will be outside at night watching the Northern Lights and it is easy to get chilled, even if there is a warm cabin to retreat to. Bring a winter coat, winter pants, warm sweatshirt, heavy sweater, warm underwear, toque, and warm gloves. You could also purchase the winter gear option (see previous page).

Activity Level 2: Moderate activity including short distances to walk and some stairs. Be prepared for standing in cool night temperatures while viewing the Northern Lights. There can be longer walks in the airports while travelling to and from Whitehorse; request a cart or wheelchair in advance or at check-in if this could be an issue for you. The buses cannot carry a scooter. If you are not able to participate in Activity Level 2, Wells Gray Tours recommends that you bring a companion to assist you. The tour director, local guides, and drivers have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance.

TOUR 25 This is a Tour 25 departure, meaning capacity of tour is limited to 25 participants, a more intimate travel experience.
