PANAMA CANAL CRUISE

October 1, 2022 – 26 Days

Vancouver to Fort Lauderdale on Holland America's Nieuw Amsterdam

It's time to get back on a ship after nearly 2 years with no cruises. This is a wonderful voyage with the benefit of boarding in Vancouver. The ship is the Nieuw Amsterdam which carries only 2,100 passengers and was launched in 2010. It has lots of veranda staterooms which are the most popular nowadays, but insides, outsides, and suites are also available. The ports of call are San Francisco, Avalon on Catalina Island, San Diego, Puerto Vallarta, Mexico; Huatulco, Mexico; Puerto Chiapas, Mexico; Puerto Quetzal, Guatemala; Corinto, Nicaragua; Puerto Caldera, Costa Rica; Oranjestad, Aruba; and Half Moon Cay. Passing through the Panama Canal, the Nieuw Amsterdam is lifted by 3 locks, sails through the 12-km Gaillard Cut and Gatun Lake, then is lowered by 3 more locks back to sea level. A cruise through the Panama Canal should be on everyone's bucket list. The cruise finishes in Fort Lauderdale and we fly back to Seattle.

We drive to New Westminster and stay overnight at the Inn at the Quay, overlooking the Fraser River. Meet your fellow travellers during a get-acquainted dinner.

Day 2: Sunday, October 2

The morning is leisure time and you may want to take a stroll along Westminster Quay. We board the Nieuw Amsterdam in early afternoon at Canada Place and enjoy an embarkation buffet lunch. The afternoon is free time to explore the ship and get settled into your stateroom. We sail out of Burrard Inlet under the Lions Gate Bridge at 5 pm with a festive "Farewell to Vancouver" deck party. After a sumptuous dinner, enjoy a lively stage show or music in many smaller lounges. We round Cape Flattery in the night.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Nieuw Amsterdam

Day 3: Monday, October 3

Day 4: Tuesday, October 4

During these two days at sea, we follow the coast of Washington, Oregon, and California southward. Although we are in the open Pacific, the Nieuw Amsterdam is remarkably smooth because it is equipped with the best stabilizers. Explore your beautiful ship while deciding how to spend these days. The ship's daily newsletter keeps you informed about scheduled activities like stage shows, movies, bingo games, group fitness, and game times in lounges. Schedule a treatment at the spa. Enjoy the entertainment at the Lincoln Stage or BB King's Blues Club. Get some advice on a workout plan at the fitness centre. Sidle up to the wine tasting bar and sample wines from around the world. There may be a talk offered at Explorations Central. The choices are many.

Day 7: Friday, October 7

The ship arrives at 8 am at Santa Catalina Island, about 30 km off the coast of California south of Los Angeles. About 3,700 people live on Catalina, almost all in the island's only town, Avalon. The chewing gum magnate, William Wrigley, bought the island in 1919 and the family has carefully controlled its development for the past century. In 1975, 88% of the island was deeded to the Catalina Island Conservancy, founded by the Wrigleys, and it still protects the island today. Avalon's cobblestone streets are narrow, quaint and winding, so the Wrigleys regulated the number of cars allowed, and today there is a 14-year waiting list to bring a car to the island. Most people get around by walking or using electric golf carts. We take tenders ashore, and tours are available with a variety of experiences in the town and around the island.

Avalon, Catalina Island

Day 8: Saturday, October 8

Our next stop is in San Diego from 9 am to 5 pm. Take a cruise around the busy San Diego harbour including lofty Coronado Bridge, the shipyards, Point Loma, and the Naval Air Station. Stroll around beautiful Balboa Park where several interesting museums are found.

A locally-guided tour is included up to the highlands and the picturesque town of Antigua. It was founded in 1543 and was the third capital of Guatemala. It is noted for Spanish Baroque architecture and the spectacular ruins of colonial churches. The city has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Enjoy a traditional lunch, then visit the Palace of the Captains General, the Cathedral, Central Plaza, and La Merced Church. There are shopping opportunities for textiles and jade.

Nicaragua is a beautiful country of lakes, volcanoes and ocean beaches on both the Pacific and Caribbean, and has a population of six million. A locally-guided tour to the colonial city of Leon is included. Leon was founded in 1524 by Spanish conquistadors at the base of Momotombo Volcano. Our tour includes a cablecar ride, a guided nature walk, and a boat excursion in the Carara Biological Reserve. The cablecar takes us above the forest canopy where massive trees are laden with vines and epiphytes, and may be over 200 years old. The park is also home to white-faced monkeys, spectacled owls, toucans, agoutis, amphibians, reptiles, and scarlet macaws. The 45-minute nature walk is a close-up experience in the jungle. Next is a boat trip on the Tarcoles River to view one of the world's biggest crocodile populations in the wild. We cruise through the mangrove, an impressive ecosystem that is an important feeding and mating area for local and migratory birds, and a refuge from mammals and reptiles.

Day 18: Tuesday, October 18

Day 19: Wednesday, October 19

Geographically, Panama is a curious country which connects two continents and has a length of 600 km, but a width of just 50 km between the Pacific Ocean and the Caribbean Sea at its narrowest. Panama has a population of 3.3 million people, mostly concentrated near the Panama Canal. Panama City, the capital and largest in the country, was founded in 1519 by the Spanish and has grown into a modern and bustling city. One of the highlights of our cruise is today's transit of the remarkable Panama Canal. Opened in 1914, after nine years of construction, it still ranks as one of the world's greatest engineering achievements with 134 million cubic metres of earth moved and a cost of $336 million. Currently about 14,000 ships per year (38 per day) pass through the canal and pay tolls of about $450 million. Cruise ships pay a toll based on berths, so Holland America will pay about $290,000 for the Nieuw Amsterdam's passage. During our eight-hour journey from the Pacific to the Caribbean, the Nieuw Amsterdam is lifted by three locks, sails through the 12-km Gaillard Cut and Gatun Lake, then is lowered by three more locks back to sea level. A Panama Canal expert is on board to explain its history and technical operations. The Panama Canal expansion project started in 2007 and the first ship sailed through the new locks in 2016. Most cruise ships will continue to use the old locks.

The Nieuw Amsterdam docks at Oranjestad on Aruba, a small island just off the coast of Venezuela. One of the Lesser Antilles, Aruba was granted home rule by the Netherlands in 1986 and became fully independent in 1996. The island has a population of about 70,000, but is only 30 km long and 8 km wide. Together with Bonaire and Curaçao, Aruba forms a group referred to as the ABC islands. Collectively, Aruba and the other Dutch islands in the Caribbean are often called the Dutch Caribbean. Driving and walking tours of Oranjestad can be purchased on the ship or on shore. The city is noted for its Dutch Colonial architecture and the Royal Plaza outdoor shopping mall.

An exciting air-boat ride across these shallow waters is included and alligators are likely to be seen. Our guide talks about the challenges of protecting the Everglades in past centuries, and the current status of this delicate ecosystem. The tour ends at Fort Lauderdale Airport, and we fly to Seattle this evening.

Meals included: Breakfast

Accommodation: Embassy Suites Sea-Tac

Day 26: Wednesday, October 26

There are shopping stops at Bellis Fair Mall and the Duty-Free Store, then we cross the border and travel home.

Meals included: Breakfast

CRUISE NOTES

Please book early: Holland America has confirmed a block of staterooms for this tour and they are normally held until three months before sailing (early July 2022). However, any unsold staterooms can be taken away from us at any time when the ship fills. This is a unique cruise itinerary from Vancouver through the Panama Canal, so it could sell out early and result in our block being reduced. When this has happened before, we had to waitlist disappointed customers, even though we still had seats available on the coaches and plane.

Dinner reservations: The Nieuw Amsterdam offers both open dining and fixed dining. Open dining is standard, so you can go to a restaurant when you are ready with your friends or make a reservation earlier in the day. If you prefer to dine at the same time with the same people each day, we can request this. The four specialty restaurants take reservations on board and you should do this early in the voyage.

Included lunches: The above itinerary shows an included lunch on every cruise day. These lunches are on the ship (except during the tours in Guatemala, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica), so if you book a shore excursion, you may miss an included lunch if you are not back on board at lunchtime. There is no compensation for missed lunches.

MS NIEUW AMSTERDAM

The Nieuw Amsterdam made her inaugural cruise in 2010 after being christened by Princess Maxima of the Netherlands (now the Queen). She is Holland America's second largest design with a capacity of 2,100 passengers. Nieuw Amsterdam's gross tonnage is 86,000 and she is 285 metres long. Her 11 decks feature a 1,000-seat live entertainment theatre, nine lounges, casino, shopping arcade, movie theatre, beauty shop, library, games room, Internet centre, spa, gymnasium, and two swimming pools (one with sliding dome cover). Nieuw Amsterdam has 14 elevators and four of them are glass with panoramic views. An exquisite $2 million collection of art and artifacts is showcased throughout the ship with a theme of "The Dutch Golden Age".

Dining is one of the highlights of a cruise. The elegant two-floor Dining Room serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner with full choice of menu. The Lido Market offers buffet-style serving stations for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and the 11 pm snack. The intimate Pinnacle Grill, the Canaletto Restaurant, and the Tamarind Restaurant offer extraordinary service, reserved seating and gourmet menus for an extra charge. You can also dine in the privacy of your stateroom by ordering from the complimentary room service menu. All meals are culinary delights and you will not go hungry on board!

Staterooms have twin lower beds (some convert to queen-size double), television, music, telephone, and bathroom with toilet, sink, and shower or bathtub. A crew of nearly 900 ensures top-quality service and entertainment. Every day has a full schedule of optional activities: dance class, bridge, bingo, shuffleboard, table-tennis, karaoke, board games, and fitness activities. The movie theatre presents films several times daily and, every evening, there is live entertainment in the Mainstage Theatre plus musicians playing in most lounges.

Activity Level 1: Although cruising is normally Activity Level 1, the tours in Guatemala, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica have more activity which could include walks of up to 1 km, walking on cobblestone streets, and stairs. Choose shore excursions at the cruise ports based on your abilities. There can be longer walks in the airports, so please request a cart or wheelchair in advance or at check-in if this could be an issue for you. The coaches cannot carry a scooter or motorized wheelchair. If Activity Level 1 could be challenging, you are urged to bring a companion to assist you. The tour director, drivers and local guides have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense; travel insurance will probably not cover you.
