TOUR NOTES

- Wells Gray first offered a tour to Branson in 1993 and it has been consistently popular, so this year will be the 24th trip there. In 2007, the tour date switched from spring to fall to attend a better variety of shows. The 2022 tour is in late September, so you can see the awesome Jesus show at Sight and Sound Theatre which will close for a month after our visit to set up a new show.

Activity Level 1: Light activity including short distances to walk and some stairs, mainly going to/from your theatre seats. There can be longer walks in Seattle and Kansas City airports; request a cart or wheelchair in advance or at airline check-in if this could be an issue for you. There are many stops during this tour and you must be able to get on and off the coaches by yourself without delaying your fellow travellers. The coaches cannot carry a scooter or motorized wheelchair. If Activity Level 1 could be challenging, you are urged to bring a companion to assist you. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour.

BRANSON, MISSOURI

Branson had its modest beginning in 1882 when Reuben Branson opened a general store and post office in the area. The first tourist attraction opened in 1894 when William Lynch bought Marble Cave, renamed it Marvel Cave, and began charging for tours. Fame came to Branson in 1907 when Harold Bell Wright published his novel about the Ozarks, The Shepherd of the Hills. Hugo and Mary Herschend acquired Marvel Cave in 1950 then, ten years later, built Silver Dollar City, a re-creation of a frontier town which still operates today with rides and shows. The Baldknobbers

Jamboree opened the first live musical show in Branson in 1959, but the first theatre on Highway 76 was Presley's Mountain Music Jubilee in 1967. Branson began its transformation into a major tourist attraction in 1983 when the Roy Clark Celebrity Theatre opened and began to bring famous country music stars to Branson. During the next ten years, performers such as Box Car Willie, Andy Williams, Shoji Tabuchi, and Glen Campbell built their own theatres. The television series 60 Minutes aired an episode in 1991 which declared that Branson was the "music capital of the entire universe", much to Nashville's chagrin. Currently there are 40 theatres operating in Branson and it has more theatre seats than Broadway or Las Vegas. It has been named the #1 U.S. destination for groups for many years and entertains more than six million visitors annually, but has a year-round population of only 11,000. Branson's title today is the "Live Music Show Capital of the World."

HOW ARE THE BRANSON SHOWS SELECTED?

The 2022 tour will be the 24th time that Wells Gray Tours has visited Branson. Many customers repeat the tour, knowing that some shows will be offered again, some are new, and many change their songs and stories. After each tour, our travellers turn in their comment sheets, rating each of the shows as excellent, good, average, or poor. A weighting of 10, 5, 1 or 0 respectively is applied. Most of Branson was closed in 2020 and 2021, due to the pandemic, so we looked at the 2019 ratings. Nine of those shows scored very high, topped by the Presleys, but several have not re-opened and those theatres have new shows opening this year. The final choices for 2022 were 5 shows offered in 2019 and 7 new ones: Hughes Family, George Dyer, Grand Jubilee, Jimmy Fortune, CJ Newsom, Down Home Country, and #1 Hits of the 60s. In addition, the Sight and Sound Theatre changes its production every year, and the spectacular show, Jesus, is scheduled for 2022. With up to 40 shows to choose from, there is always something new and exciting to see in Branson.
