

THANKSGIVING AT ECHO VALLEY RANCH

October 6, 2022 - 5 Days

Savour a peaceful retreat in the Cariboo!

Echo Valley Ranch is nestled in the midst of magnificent Cariboo scenery west of Clinton, and offers an experience unlike any other. Part ranch, part spa, part luxury, the resort sits amid hundreds of acres of pristine mountains, lush valleys, pine forests, and rugged canyons. Living in harmony with the land, the staff lovingly grow, raise, harvest, forage, and preserve much of the cuisine served at the ranch, and the rest is sourced within BC. Echo Valley has undergone a comprehensive assessment to achieve Sustainable Tourism Gold Certified, a rarity in the province. This Thanksgiving weekend tour is a wonderful escape to a rural and remote place. There are many complimentary activities offered and you can choose to go horse-riding or mountain biking, practice archery, explore the farm-to-table garden, or learn wilderness survival skills. You may simply want to take it easy and savour some superb meals with wine pairings at dinner.

ECHO VALLEY RANCH

Echo Valley was never planned to be a hotel – it naturally grew to become the Canadian gem it is today. The connection to nature is at the heart of the Echo Valley Experience, from the sounds of Copper Drop Spring to the deep orange of the Marble Range at sunset. It's the feeling of being at home with yourself, reconnecting with yourself, pure relaxation, a spring in your step, and ease in your mind. Owners Norm and Nan Dove knew they had found paradise when they first visited Echo Valley.

Wander across the ranch with the faithful border collies, get pampered in the award-winning spa, experience the backcountry on horseback, and participate in a variety of intriguing activities. Meals are "farm fresh" with sustainable sources, and wine and beer are served complimentary after 12 noon. Facilities include an indoor pool, sauna, fitness centre, and games room.

Sitting amidst four distinct geographic regions, Echo Valley is surrounded by an incredibly diverse range of natural beauty: The majestic semi-desert Fraser Canyon, boreal forests in most of the valley bottoms, treeless mountains in between, and rolling grasslands spread around. The result is an unparalleled eco-friendly resort, a place of balance and well-being, coupled with an extraordinary range of soft adventures and scenery that is both awe-inspiring and memorable.

ACTIVITY OPTIONS

- 1) Horse Harmony. Distractions melt away as you forge a connection with your horse, a close equine encounter that peels back any stress and replaces with peace, calm, and well-being. Connect with your horse in the morning by brushing it and walking alongside it around the ranch. After lunch, saddle your horse and embark on a slow-paced ride to experience nature from horseback.
- 2) Forest Bathing. This is an immersive, solitary, and unique experience in the boreal forest surrounding the ranch. Connect with the sounds and sights of the forest through stillness and touch.
- 3) Survival Spirit. Imagine being stranded in the wilderness for a day or two and surviving the raw elements of nature on your own. This informative and creative activity explains how, then you head into the woods for hands-on survival training. Find a source of water, search for edibles, and start a fire with natural kindling, then listen to a survival story or two from the guide.

- 4) Archery. This program features recurve bows and instruction by an expert guide.
- 5) Ranch Gardens. A more complete tour of the vegetable garden, greenhouses, berry patches, and root cellar is available.
- 6) Hiking, biking and fishing are three more activities that you can book, depending on your interests.
