Day 2: Tuesday, September 27

Following the busy 401 freeway, we journey west through Kitchener to Stratford where we stay three nights. The small town of Stratford became the home of the largest classical repertory theatre in North America thanks to the dream of Tom Patterson. In 1952, he conceived the idea of a theatre festival devoted to the works of William Shakespeare. His vision won the support not only of Stratford City Council and an enthusiastic committee of citizens, but also of the legendary British actor and director Tyrone Guthrie, who agreed to become the first Artistic Director. The initial performance was on July 13, 1953, when actor Alec Guinness spoke the opening lines of Richard III. At 2 pm, you can attend Chicago at the Festival Theatre or All's Well That Ends Well at the Tom Patterson Theatre. Tonight, enjoy either Hamlet at the Festival Theatre or 1939 at the Tom Patterson Theatre.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Arden Park Hotel

Day 3: Wednesday, September 28

At 9:30 am, we go to Lazaridis Hall for a program "Meet the Festival" which is a fun and informal Q&A session with artists and staff. The morning program, "Peer into the Playbill" features a panel of special guests discussing ideas and issues about the afternoon show, The Miser. Mark Kingwell, professor of philosophy at the University of Toronto, psychologist Dr. Peggy Richter, and personal finance expert Rubina Ahmed-Haq consider the human impulses to hoard, to fear death, and to love money. At 2 pm, we attend The Miser at the Festival Theatre. Tonight at 8 pm, there is an optional show at the Avon Theatre, Hamlet-911.

It showcases 6,000 works by the Group of Seven, Tom Thomson, Emily Carr, Clarence Gagnon and other contemporaries, as well as First Nations, Inuit and other artists who have contributed to Canada's artistic heritage. The sprawling galleries have a beautiful woodland setting along the Humber River Valley. Next is the venerable Royal Ontario Museum which exhibits an amazing collection of Ontario memorabilia. We visit districts like Yorkville and drive along famous streets including Bay, Yonge, and Bloor. This afternoon, we go to the CN Tower, one of the tallest buildings in the world at 550 metres, and enjoy a panoramic view of Toronto. Are you brave enough to stand on the glass floor? ### Day 7: Sunday, October 2

It is a two-hour drive along Lake Ontario via Hamilton to Niagara-on-the-Lake, a quaint town of historic buildings and interesting shops, and home to the Shaw Festival. It was started in 1962 by lawyer and playwright Brian Doherty who organized eight weekend performances of George Bernard Shaw's Don Juan in Hell and Candida under the title "Salute to Shaw". Currently, the Festival produces about ten plays each season with over 800 performances. Upon arrival, we take a backstage tour of the Shaw Festival Theatre, then attend the 1 pm performance there of The Importance of Being Ernest. There is free time for browsing the shops and dinner on your own, then we return to the Festival Theatre to see The Doctor's Dilemma starting at 7 pm. Afterwards, we drive to nearby Niagara Falls and settle into the luxurious Hilton Hotel for a two-night stay. ## ON WITH THE SHOW!

Here are brief descriptions of the shows. Please note that there are choices in Stratford. There are 3 occasions when 2 shows are running simultaneously at different theatres, and you can choose one of them. You should do this at booking, but no later than at final payment.

STRATFORD

With William Shakespeare as its foundation, the Stratford Festival has set the standard for classical theatre in North America for 69 years. The company creates stimulating, thought-provoking productions of Shakespeare's plays, as well as presenting other plays from the classical repertoire, while attracting the best stage talent. Five productions are included with a choice for 3 of them, plus an option for a 6th show.

Chicago – In the Roaring 1920s, aspiring chorus girl Roxie Hart and fading vaudeville star Velma Kelly each face trial for murder. Both as cynical as they are sexy, the two women compete for the services of shady lawyer Billy Flynn who promises to make them media celebrities and win them acquittals. With its terrific score and spectacular dance numbers, this lurid tale of adultery, murder and justice as showbiz packs some serious heat.

All's Well That Ends Well (Shakespeare) – Having worked a miraculous cure on the deathly ill King of France, Helena claims as her reward the hand of Bertram, the young lord she adores. She already has the blessing of his mother, the Countess of Rossillion, but Bertram himself resents being forced into an arranged marriage. It looks like Helena needs another miracle to win his heart – until Bertram's own roving eye enables an audacious remedy. This production is set during the First World War.

Hamlet (Shakespeare) – Prince Hamlet, son of Denmark's late king, is horrified and placed in a moral quandary by the apparition of his father's ghost. This spectre claims to have been murdered by the brother who now wears his crown. The ghost demands vengeance, but can it be trusted? And can the taking of a life ever be justified? Can this troubled family tolerate any further loss? This production takes place in present day with modern dress.

1939 – Anticipating a visit by King George VI, an English teacher at a fictional Residential School in Northern Ontario enlists her students in a production of All's Well That Ends Well. But her rigid ideas of how Shakespeare should be performed are challenged as her Indigenous students start finding parallels between themselves and the characters in the play and, far from letting themselves be defined by colonial expectations, set out to make Shakespeare's bitter-sweet comedy defiantly their own.

Little Women – Aspiring writer Jo March and her sisters, Meg, Beth, and Amy, do their best to make ends meet as they navigate the road to adulthood. Struggling to reconcile societal expectations with their own hopes and dreams, the girls are held together by bonds of loyalty and love. They may differ in their ideas of what it means to be a woman, but each of their journeys poses the same universal question: How do you find your own path? This production takes place in present day with 1860s period costumes.

Richard III (Shakespeare) – As charismatic as he is cunning, as strangely seductive as he is utterly ruthless, Richard, Duke of Gloucester, is the very embodiment of lethal ambition as he manoeuvres and murders his way to the throne of England, sardonically revelling in his own villainy every step of the way. But once he has reached the top, the only way left to go is down, and in Richard's growing roster of vengeful enemies, none are more menacing than the ghosts of his past.

Every Little Nookie – When a suburban boomer couple return home to find their queer millennial daughter, Annabel, hosting a swingers' party to make cash, they're forced to question the state of their marriage. Annabel, in turn, must ponder her own future when she adds a new relationship to her chosen family of polyamorous and platonic roommates. In this high-spirited sex romp, it's not just the earth that moves, as shifting paradigms encourage new possibilities, both personal and political. This world premiere production takes place in Toronto in the near future.

The Miser – The paranoid old skinflint Harper hoards every dollar, believing his fortune will award him immortality. He has two grown children: Eleanor who is in love with Victor, her father's butler, and Charlie who loves the hard-up Marianne. Both siblings know that if they persist with their romantic choices, they can kiss their inheritances goodbye. And their plights only get worse when the widowed Harper announces startling marital plans of his own. It will take a miracle for the desires of youth to have their way.

Hamlet-911 – Actor Guinness Menzies has landed his dream role: he's playing Hamlet at the Stratford Festival. Just before a matinée performance, he suddenly finds himself in the Underworld, a strange realm as frightening as it is hilarious, where time is seriously out of joint. Has he gone mad? Is he dreaming? Meanwhile, teenager Jeremy reaches out to Guinness online as he wrestles with his own version of Hamlet's famous life-or-death dilemma. This is an optional show ($105 + GST extra cost).

TORONTO

Harry Potter and the Cursed Child – This awesome spectacle originally cast a spell over Broadway as an epic two-part event. Now, the show has been boldly restaged as one 3½-hour performance by the award-winning creative team. Nineteen years after Harry, Ron and Hermione saved the wizarding world, they're back on a most extraordinary new adventure – this time, joined by a brave new generation that has only just arrived at the legendary Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. Prepare for spectacular spells, a mind-blowing race through time, and an epic battle to stop mysterious forces, all while the future hangs in the balance. We have excellent seating in Rows K, L and M.

Singin' in the Rain – Journey back to the glamour of Hollywood during the Roaring 1920s. Silent movie star Don Lockwood has it all, a string of hit films and a romance with the most beautiful actress in town. What Don doesn't know is that the silver screen is about to find its voice, and a chance meeting with a talented young chorus girl set to steal his heart promises to change both Don, and Hollywood, forever. Andrew Wright's high-energy choreography and Simon Higlett's sumptuous set design (including over 14,000 litres of water on stage) combine with the charm, romance and wit of one of the world's best-loved films. Enjoy the glorious MGM score including Good Morning, Make 'em Laugh, Moses Supposes, and the legendary Singin' in the Rain.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE & NIAGARA FALLS

Founded in 1962 on the work of George Bernard Shaw, Niagara-On-The-Lake's Shaw Festival is another of Ontario's great theatre destinations. The Festival produces plays from and about Shaw's era and contemporary plays that share Shaw's provocative exploration of society and celebration of humanity.

The Importance of Being Earnest – Subtitled A Trivial Comedy for Serious People, Oscar Wilde's last and greatest play concentrates all his incredible wit and observation into a dazzling satire of Victorian attitudes. All the tricks of romantic comedy and farce are employed to present us with a portrait of the most absurd people we will ever meet – ourselves.

The Doctor's Dilemma – One of Bernard Shaw's most popular plays, this exploration of medical ethics has again found its moment. If one patient can only live at the cost of another's life, how on earth do you choose? What is the value of a human life? Questions which have never lost their urgency are brought to thrilling life in this tragicomic tour de force.

Greg Frewin Magic Show – This spectacular dinner show at Niagara Falls has been hailed as a jaw-dropping magic experience with a rare White Siberian tiger and exotic birds from around the globe. Greg Frewin is currently ranked as The International Grand Champion of Magic, having won every major award offered within the magic community. He has placed first in numerous magic competitions including the International Brotherhood of Magicians, the Canadian Association of Magicians, the Society of American Magicians, the Federation Internationale Society of Magique (widely regarded as the Olympics of magic), and the Magician of the Year at the 2009 World Magic awards, ranking him as the world's top illusionist.
