FAREWELL TO TSA-KWA-LUTEN LODGE

October 11, 2023 – 5 Days

One more chance to stay!

Tsa-Kwa-Luten Lodge is closing permanently in October. The Cape Mudge Band has decided to convert the lodge into a treatment centre for members of their First Nation. Wells Gray Tours has stayed there many times over the last 20 years and we are sad to lose this beautiful oceanfront hotel. It was built by the Kwagiutl people and its vast lobby resembles a traditional “Big House” with massive timbers, a soaring cathedral ceiling, and huge windows overlooking Discovery Passage. We have 2 tours already scheduled for Thanksgiving weekend, but the Lodge has agreed to stay open for an extra week, so we can operate these “farewell” tours. The first departure on October 9 sold out in 3 days. This tour also features a marine life cruise around Quadra and Cortez Islands, and a show at Chemainus Theatre, The Fiancée.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Wednesday, October 11

We drive to Vancouver and take the ferry to Nanaimo.

Meals included: Lunch

Accommodation: Coast Bastion Hotel Nanaimo

Day 2: Thursday, October 12

In Campbell River, there is a 10-minute ferry ride across Discovery Passage to Quadra Island. We stay for two nights near the south end of the island at Tsa-Kwa-Luten Lodge. Admire the view of Discovery Passage from your balcony, the dining room, the lobby, or the deck. This afternoon, a local expert presents a cultural talk about Quadra Island.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Tsa-Kwa-Luten Lodge

Day 3: Friday, October 13

We take a pleasant walk along the beach at Rebecca Spit with the ocean on both sides. Later, savour traditional barbecued salmon served as a snack. There is leisure time to wander the beach, walk to the lighthouse, hike to the Cape Mudge cliffs, or soak in the hot tub.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Tsa-Kwa-Luten Lodge

Day 4: Saturday, October 14

We board several vessels at Quathiaski Cove for a five-hour excursion weaving among the northern Gulf Islands of Quadra, Cortes, Maurelle, and Read. These waterways are great for whale watching and we keep an eye open for humpbacks, orcas, and dolphins. Our coach is waiting in Campbell River. Near Parksville, we stop at Coombs Market, full of interesting shops, and known for the goats grazing on its roof. In Chemainus, we admire dozens of colourful murals. Dinner is at Chemainus Theatre followed by a performance of The Fiancée. Lucy can't bear the thought of soldiers being sent off to war without the hope of someone to come home to. She is in a predicament when they all arrive home, ready for nuptial bliss, in this madcap, door-slaming, hilarious farce.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Best Western Chemainus Inn

Day 5: Sunday, October 15

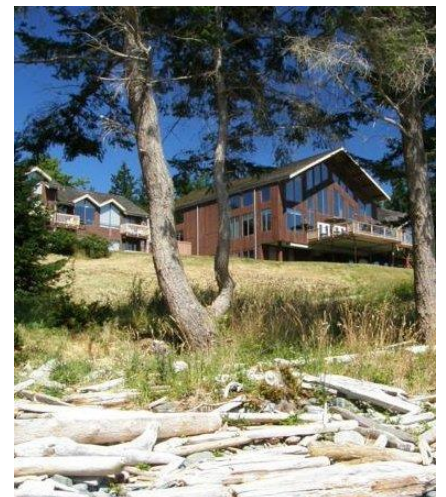

We take the ferry to Tsawwassen, then travel home along the Coquihalla Highway.

Meals included: Breakfast

TSA-KWA-LUTEN LODGE

This magnificent lodge was built by the Kwagiutl people in 1991 and its vast lobby resembles a traditional "Big House" with massive timbers, a soaring cathedral ceiling, and huge windows overlooking Discovery Passage. All rooms have an ocean view. Relax on your private balcony and enjoy the panorama of the ocean, the mountains of Vancouver Island beyond, the rapidly-moving tides, and tugboats with barges navigating this narrow waterway. A two-bedroom beachfront cottage is available if you are sharing with two or three other passengers. All meals are included due to the isolation here. The lodge has complimentary wi-fi. Rooms do not have televisions in keeping with the get-away atmosphere, so you may want to bring a book.

When the Cape Mudge Band Council was considering converting Tsa-Kwa-Luten Lodge to a treatment centre, there was strong opposition from employees (some have been there since opening), other band members, and residents of Quadra Island. The Lodge hosts thousands of tourists per year who bring in millions in revenue, and there are few other tourist facilities on the island. Wells Gray has offered several tours each year to the Lodge since 2004 and we are sad to see it close. Fortunately, the Lodge has agreed to stay open for an extra week, so you can enjoy one final visit.

TOUR NOTES

Activity Level 1: Light activity including short distances to walk, some walking on sandy or pebbly beaches, and some stairs. If you stay in a beachfront cottage at Tsa-Kwa-Luten, there is a 5-minute walk uphill to the lodge for meals and the coach. Request a ground floor room at Tsa-Kwa-Luten if you have difficulty with stairs, as there is no elevator. You can take a short or longer walk at Rebecca Spit. The coach cannot carry a scooter or motorized wheelchair. Everybody participating in this tour is expected to be capable of handling Activity Level 1. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities.
