Day 3: Wednesday, March 20

A local guide conducts a Charleston city tour. Charleston came to be known as "The Holy City" due to the religious freedom several hundred years ago. In the early days, the church steeples towering over the skyline were a vital landmark to guide ship captains into Charleston, one of the most important harbours on the eastern seaboard. See centuries old cobblestone streets, historic homes, the antebellum mansions along the Battery, and the Military College of South Carolina (also called The Citadel) while hearing stories about the Holy City. Discover sweet grass baskets, try a benne, pick up a souvenir, or stroll the streets around the Charleston Historic Market during free time mid-day. This afternoon, we go to Magnolia Plantation which was settled in 1676 and is still in the same family 15 generations later. We enjoy a tram tour through the splendid gardens which opened to visitors in 1870, followed by a guided home tour. Unique dining awaits this evening on the Spirit of Carolina dinner cruise offering gourmet cuisine, live entertainment, and wonderful views of Charleston's Harbor.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Hampton Inn Charleston

Day 4: Thursday, March 21

Wadmalaw Island was first settled thousands of years ago by Cusabo Indians, who hunted deer and wild turkey in the virgin forests, grew corn and beans in the verdant soil, and left behind huge middens of oyster shells. The rich soil and temperate climate of Wadmalaw Island has supported commercial and family farms for generations. Long famous for tomatoes, the island is also dotted with u-pick family farms and Community Sponsored Agriculture cooperatives. Here is the only tea plantation in the USA. Learn about the Bigelow family and view many acres of breathtaking Camellia Sinensis tea plants as far as the eye can see. Learn how tea is made during an informative factory tour, take a trolley ride through the tea fields, and help yourself to all the iced tea you wish. On nearby Johns Island, we admire the huge Angel Oak Tree. Estimated at nearly 500 years old, it stands 20 metres tall, measures 8.5 metres around, and its longest branch is 57 metres.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Hampton Inn Charleston

Day 5: Friday, March 22

We journey south along the coast to Beaufort, "Queen of the Carolina Sea Islands," where we admire the timeless architecture of its National Historic Landmark District during a guided horse-drawn carriage tour. There is time to wander through the quaint shops. Entering Georgia, we arrive in Savannah, founded in 1733 and the oldest city in the state. It was a strategic port during the American Revolution and the Civil War, and is still an important Atlantic Coast port. We stay three nights in the historic district.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Hilton Garden Inn

Day 6: Saturday, March 23

During a guided trolley tour, we see Savannah's 22 historic squares and hear about its storied past. Highlights include such landmarks as Forsyth Park, River Street, the Waving Girl statue, the Cotton Exchange, and Colonial Park Cemetery. Explore at your leisure this afternoon with hop on/off trolley privileges. Next is the American Prohibition Museum and, at the end of the tour, ironically, a drink ticket is provided for use in the speakeasy. Tonight, we go to the Savannah Theatre which opened in 1818 and has been presenting movies and stage shows ever since. Tonight's performance will be announced in late 2023.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Hilton Garden Inn

Day 7: Sunday, March 24

Tybee Island is a barrier island at the mouth of the Savannah River and known for its wide, sandy beaches. We take a beach walk with a local naturalist, then have lunch at The Crab Shack. Later, we relive a bygone era on board the Georgia Queen, hearing the captain's intriguing tales as we cruise the Savannah River.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Hilton Garden Inn

Day 8: Monday, March 25

We drive to Georgia's Golden Isles with a visit to St. Simons Island. Marvel at the expansive marshlands, centuries old live oaks dripping with Spanish moss, and the charming beach village overlooking the Brunswick River. You may want to try some sweet Georgia shrimp at one of the cafes in the village. This afternoon, we enjoy a hands-on experience on board the Lady Jane Shrimping Boat which introduces us to the sea life of the intercoastal waterway. Then we cross bridges and causeways to Jekyll Island. In 1886, 53 prominent wealthy Americans bought the island for $125,000 and turned it into an exclusive private winter retreat called the Jekyll Island Club.

Among the best-known members were Marshall Field, John Pierpont Morgan, Joseph Pulitzer, William Vanderbilt, and William Rockefeller. The Club operated until 1942, then was purchased by the Georgia government to create a park. We savour an elegant dining experience at the Jekyll Island Club, so you can relive these gilded years among the ranks of the rich and famous.

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner

Accommodation: Hampton Inn Jekyll Island

Day 9: Tuesday, March 26

We step into the past again during a tram tour of Jekyll Island's historic district. Heading north, we stop at the National Museum of the Mighty Eighth Air Force for a tour of aircraft that served in World War II. This evening, we fly on Alaska Airlines from Charleston to Seattle.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Embassy Suites Sea-Tac

Day 10: Wednesday, March 27

Shopping stops are made at Bellis Fair Mall and the Duty Free store, then we cross the border at Sumas and travel home.

Moderate activity including walking tours of historic homes and gardens which usually require some stairs and standing. There are three boat excursions which may have steep gangways to access the vessel, depending on tides. Charleston and Savannah have historic districts where coaches are restricted, so walking tours are offered which may be on cobblestone streets or uneven sidewalks. The coach cannot carry a scooter or motorized wheelchair. There can be longer walks in the airports. Everybody participating in this tour is expected to be capable of handling Activity Level 2. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some tour days. In extreme situations, you may be required to leave the tour and travel home at your own expense; travel insurance will probably not cover you.
