

SUNSHINE COAST

September 2025

Sechelt

With Princess Louisa Fjord, Agamemnon Channel & Desolation Sound cruises

The Sunshine Coast is a distinct region of BC, located on the southern coast between Desolation Sound on the north and Howe Sound on the south. The rugged mountains bordering these inlets cut it off from direct road connection to the rest of the province, so although part of the BC mainland, it can only be reached by ferries or planes. Here are the traditional territories of the Squamish (Skwxwú7mesh), Sechelt (shíshálh), Tla'Amin, and Klahoose Nations. There are many highlights during our time on the Sunshine Coast – 3 cruises featuring Agamemnon Channel, Princess Louisa Fjord, and Desolation Sound; a local guide in Gibsons, The Beachcombers filming locations, a nature walking tour "Talking Trees", and Botanical Gardens. So much to see in this pocket of delights so close to home.

You can stand for prolonged periods and climb two flights of stairs without assistance. Ramps onto docks can be steep at low tide. There are steps getting in and out of the vessels. There is no luggage handling service at either hotel.

You may bring a cane or walking poles if needed. Walkers are not appropriate for this tour. The coach cannot carry a scooter or motorized wheelchair. The tour director and driver have many responsibilities, so please do not expect them, or your fellow travellers, to provide ongoing assistance. If you are not capable of keeping up with the group or require frequent assistance, the tour director may stop you from participating in some activities or some days of the tour.

Cruise through Agamemnon Channel

ITINERARY

Tuesday, September 2

We take the ferry from Horseshoe Bay across Howe Sound to Langdale. Welcome to the Sunshine Coast! We stay three nights at the Oceanside Coast Hotel, located on the waterfront a few kms south of Sechelt. Meet your fellow travellers at a get-acquainted dinner.

Wednesday, September 3

A local guide shows us the highlights along the southern part of the Sunshine Coast. In Gibsons, we stop for photos at Molly's Reach, the famous restaurant seen by millions of viewers on CBC's The Beachcombers which ran for 19 seasons from 1972 to 1990. The tugboat Persephone has been restored and is displayed nearby. This afternoon, we drive to Egmont where Sechelt Inlet joins Jervis Inlet. We board two small vessels for a scenic cruise through Agamemnon Channel south to Pender Harbour. Steep rock walls rise 150 metres from the water, and some 2000-metre high peaks are visible. We stop at several pictographs, probably drawn centuries ago by shíshálh Peoples, and you can speculate on their meaning.

Thursday, September 4

An Indigenous guide takes us on a nature walking tour "Talking Trees" which shares the stories of how the shíshálh (Sechelt) Coast Salish and Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Peoples have been utilizing the land for food, medicine and technology for thousands of years. This afternoon, we stroll through the Sunshine Coast Botanical Garden in Sechelt. Next is the Tems Swiya Museum which exhibits an extensive collection of artifacts and cultural materials belonging to the shíshálh Nation. The name means 'our world' and the museum is central to the presentation, conservation, and protection of shíshálh cultural heritage.

Friday, September 5

This is a day of dramatic sights as we explore one of British Columbia's best known fjords. Leaving Egmont, we cruise for two hours up Jervis Inlet past soaring peaks and waterfalls that cascade directly into the ocean. Malibu Narrows is the location of historic Malibu Lodge, an impressive log structure that was an exclusive retreat for Hollywood celebrities in the 1940s and is now a popular church camp. The narrows mark the entrance to Princess Louisa Fjord and, from here on, the sheer cliffs rise a thousand metres. Princess Louisa was Queen Victoria's mother, but the indigenous name "Sway-oo-lat" means "facing the rising sun's rays". The vessels dock at the upper end and we have time ashore to admire the thundering cascade of Chatterbox Falls. We disembark at Saltery Bay on the north side of Jervis Inlet, then drive into Powell River for a three-night stay at Beach Gardens Resort. The hotel has a splendid setting overlooking Malaspina Strait and every room has an ocean view with a balcony. Tonight, take a stroll beside the ocean and enjoy this wonderful setting.

ITINERARY continued

Saturday, September 6

We drive to the end of Highway 101 at Lund which is the jumping-off point for boat excursions into Desolation Sound. British Columbia's largest marine park, established in 1973, attracts recreational boaters from around the world because of its magnificent scenery, pleasant summer climate, numerous sheltered harbours, and the snowcapped peaks of the Coast Mountains which rise over 2,400 metres from the water. Captain George Vancouver saw it differently in 1792 when he described these waters as "forlorn" and "desolate". Our five-hour excursion from Lund in two small vessels visits sights such as Squirrel Cove, Roscoe Bay, and Copeland Islands, and lunch is provided on board. The small size, maneuverability, and minimal draft allow the boats to enter narrow passages.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Beach Gardens Resort

Sunday, September 7

We visit two historic buildings in Powell River. Henderson House was specially commissioned in 1911 by the Powell River Paper Company to attract a doctor to the new town. The Patricia Theatre was built in 1928 and is the longest running movie theatre in Canada. Lunch is at the Shingle Mill Bistro, overlooking Powell Lake. The afternoon is free time.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Monday, September 8

We ride the ferries from Saltery Bay to Earls Cove and Langdale to Horseshoe Bay, then travel home.

Sunshine Coast

THE SUNSHINE COAST

The "Sunshine Coast" name originated with a pioneer family. In 1914, Harry Roberts painted "The Sunshine Belt" on the first wharf built in Roberts Creek, and promoted the area as a summer resort. When Black Ball Ferries started service in 1951, they promoted the area as "Sunshine Coast" and the name quickly caught on.

In 1912, a pulp and paper mill was built in Powell River. By 1930, the mill employed more than 2,000 workers, and had become the largest newsprint mill in the world. The highway reached Pender Harbour in the 1930s and the end of the Sechelt Peninsula in the 1950s, then the new ferry provided convenient access to all the settlements and the population boomed. Powell River townsite was designated as a National Historic District in 1995, one of only seven in Canada, and boasts over 400 original buildings.

Today, the Sunshine Coast is home to about 50,000 people. Forestry continues to be one of the region's economic mainstays with tourism a close second. The Sunshine Coast has the highest per capita population of artists and crafters in Canada, and dozens of studios dot Highway 101 with purple banner flags indicating that the artist is open. Here, too, are the traditional territories of the Squamish (Skwxwú7mesh), Sechelt (shíshálh), Tla'Amin, and Klahoose Nations.

Time on board is about 2 hours. Desolation Sound cruise utilizes two small vessels with indoor seating and a restroom.

At Beach Gardens Resort in Powell River, all rooms have an ocean view with a balcony.

Food Allergies: You must notify us no later than at final payment if you have a food allergy. This tour goes to some remote places where restaurants may not be able to satisfy all food allergies. Payments: A deposit of $200 per person is requested at the time of booking and the balance is due June 25, 2025. By paying the deposit, you agree to the Terms & Conditions, Activity Level and Cancellation Policy outlined. Cancellation Policy: Up to May 23, 2025, the cancellation charge is $100 per person. From May 24 to June 25, the cancellation charge is $200 per person (your deposit). From June 26 to July 25, the cancellation charge is 60% of the tour fare. After July 25, there is no refund.

Itinerary and Fare Changes: Our many suppliers may notify us about changes to the itinerary prior to departure and sometimes during the tour. We do our best to substitute a similar service if something cancels, but occasionally the only alternative is to provide a refund for the missed activity. Please note that if we are forced to cancel a tour component due to an issue beyond our control, the current penalties still apply if you choose to cancel the entire tour. Fuel surcharges and changes to taxes or other tour costs can occur at any time, therefore Wells Gray Tours reserves the right to increase fares due to such changes up to departure.

Travel Insurance: A Comprehensive Insurance policy is available through Wells Gray Tours and coverage is provided by Travel Guard. Policies purchased at deposit include a waiver of the pre-existing condition clause for medical and cancellation claims, otherwise policies can be purchased no later than at final payment.
