Experience

ROLAND'S RAMBLE

What a whirlwind summer it's been! I've probably added a few more gray hairs up top, thanks to Air Canada. When the strike was announced on August 13, we had a group flying to Toronto the next day to see three Blue Jays games and returning August 18. We couldn't cancel the tour because planes were still flying on August 13 and the hotel and game tickets were prepaid. It was the return flight that was in doubt. We managed to secure a Victoria flight on WestJet prior to the strike. When an agreement was reached, Air Canada rescheduled our Kelowna flight from August 18 to 23. We looked at WestJet, Porter, Flair, Transat, Air North, Sunwing and VIA Rail, but all were charging outrageous prices for the few available seats. We considered driving to Buffalo and flying to Seattle, but some people did not have passports. Then on August 18, after the remaining 21 people were planning on enjoying an extra five days in Toronto, Air Canada suddenly found seats that evening, and everybody got home, albeit with a couple of extra days in Toronto. It's a lesson in always buying travel insurance, but be sure it does not exclude strikes.

The other worry was our Scotland tour leaving August 20 with a flight to Toronto, then Edinburgh. Air Canada initially cancelled the Toronto flight and rebooked us on an exhausting flight from Vancouver to San Diego, Newark, and Edinburgh. The critical element was our tickets to the Edinburgh Military Tattoo on August 23, purchased a year ago because it is so popular. Almost at the last minute, the Toronto flight was reinstated and off they went to Edinburgh, on time. The tour has now returned, and by all accounts, they had a fabulous time.

All this was coordinated by Dom in Penticton, our Flights Specialist, and Sema in Victoria, Operations Manager. Thanks to them for their dedication, logging many hours of overtime on phones and computers to be sure that everyone got home or headed out on time. They may say they worked tirelessly, but I'm sure they were exhausted when this ordeal was over.

Anne and I are feeling very pleased about all the accomplishments in Wells Gray Park this summer. The naturalist program was a great success with record attendance at the walks and talks presented by Kendall and Sam. The trail crew, Aidan and Ethan, cleared and improved some 200 km of Park trails and re-opened the nearly impassable Huntley Col trail. The Grove of Giants interpretive trail opened with nine new signs explaining the wonders of this old-growth forest enclave. All this was made possible by a donation to the BC Parks Foundation. You can do this as well and benefit your favourite park.

As we head into fall, I'm looking ahead excitedly to many activities. A Wells Gray Park tour in late September, a Mystery Tour in October, a 5th birthday party for our granddaughter and a 100th for a long-time friend, visits from our daughter at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and the National Tour Association convention in Ottawa. I guess it's time we decided on a winter holiday, as several of our tours are already full. Since I spend lots of time planning your tours, I'm not keen on planning a holiday for Anne and me when it's much easier to hop on a Wells Gray tour!

We don't have much planned south of the border this year because Canadians understandably are not crossing the border. Two exceptions stand out — a festive Christmas Lights trip to Leavenworth (departing from Victoria) and a relaxing Palm Springs Winter Escape in February 2026. We don't know when friendly relations will resume with the USA, could be next week, could be a year or two. The planning and promotion of a tour takes six to eight months before departure, so we want to be ready with a few USA tour offers.

And don't forget — our Annual Travel Shows return in October! Hosted by Kerrie, our Director of Sales & Marketing, this is how you can get a sneak preview of upcoming 2026 tours. Be sure to RSVP early, as space is limited. We've added extra shows in Kamloops and Kelowna because so many people want to attend. It's always such a joy to reconnect with familiar faces and welcome new friends to the Wells Gray family.

Have a wonderful colourful fall, wherever your travels take you.

Cheers,

Roland Neave

Owner and Founder, CTP, Hon. Doc.

Join Us for the 63rd Mystery Tour—
41 Years of Secrets, Surprises, and Unforgettable Journeys!

MYSTERY TOUR

All departures: May 2, 2026 – 12 days

This is Wells Gray Tours' 63rd Mystery Tour since 1985 and the 41st year. The first Mystery Tour was only three days and travelled to Whistler. During these 41 years of Mystery Tours, they have been offered once or twice a year and have taken curious customers to destinations all over Canada, the USA, and even Iceland and Costa Rica. We never tell you where you will go or what you will see. You may be amazed when the coach pulls up beside a cruise ship or a train, or you look at your boarding pass for the flight destination, or you arrive at a unique hotel. The 2026 spring Mystery Tour was an idea that came to Fraser Neave while travelling on a familiarization tour sponsored by a tourism organization, and he figured it would be a really interesting Mystery. You will travel by planes, a motorcoach, and two other methods. Add a castle, a famous river, waterfalls, and fine cuisine to get a very special tour experience. Enough hints for now!!

Note: A passport is required for this tour, but we are not going to the USA.

MYSTERY TOUR CLUES

Here are 7 clues to this mystery route. These clues are arranged in the order that they occur on the itinerary. Pore over maps, use the Internet, try Google Search (but we've already checked that the answers are not obvious) and, most important, have fun guessing where we're going!

1. Let the bells ring out and banners fly to celebrate a student's fine mark.
2. Black is at both ends, but a melodic blue lies in between.
3. A new orchard blossoms beside a musical river, beneath Peter's mighty fortress.
4. I soar the sky on endless thread and beneath me glows a golden pine.
5. My shape is love, but not for two. Tongues mingle where coffee brews beneath five rings. They say the vodka was better 50 years ago.
6. Next to ancient stones, a single spark was the first of millions while a tide of iron swept past.
7. Defiant under battlements and remote ocean voyages, noble is the King. Tip: Hide 3-letter words.

FAIRMONT HOTELS OF THE ROCKIES

All departures: April 22, 2026 – 8 days

Canada's grand railway hotels are architectural wonders as well as landmarks. Most were built by Canadian Pacific or Canadian National to accommodate their elite guests on passenger trains and featured every luxury imaginable including comfortable bedrooms and spectacular lobbies and public rooms. Among the remaining hotels, hundreds of millions of dollars have been spent on renovations to bring them into modern times. Most have hosted royalty, heads of state, political figures, and celebrities, and the hallways are decorated with historical pictures of famous guests. Four renowned hotels, all managed by Fairmont, are featured on this tour: The Fairmont Palliser in Calgary, Fairmont Banff Springs, Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise, and Fairmont Jasper Park Lodge. These grand hotels are not cheap to stay at and many tourists shun them for more modest lodgings, perhaps instead strolling through the lobby. Fraser Neave, Wells Gray's vice-president, was fortunate to connect with Fairmont and secure spring deals at each of these stunning properties. Now you can count yourself among the privileged elite and experience some of Canada's most famous hotels.

Unique Winter Getaways

ICE HOTEL & QUÉBEC WINTER CARNIVAL

All departures: February 6, 2026 – 7 days

The tradition of celebrating winter in February has been around for a long time! In Québec City, the world's snow capital, the first major winter carnival made its debut in 1894. Interrupted by two world wars and the depression years, the Carnival was revived in 1955 with Bonhomme as its mascot. Carnival became a must attend event for the people of Québec City and the impetus behind the city's winter tourist activities. Today, the Carnival is undeniably a major winter event and continues to be a driving force in Québec's winter life. We stay 4 nights at the Delta Hotel, enjoying the many activities of Carnival, then drive 40 minutes north to Valcartier for a unique experience staying a night at the famous Hôtel de Glace (Ice Hotel).
